

St. Jerome Catholic Church

As parishioners of St. Jerome and as Catholic disciples of Jesus Christ, we respond to our Lord's invitation to walk with Him in the Sacraments and prayer, to deepen our faith through lifelong formation, to serve those in need, and to invite others to the fullness of the Catholic faith through His Holy Word and the teaching of His Church.

DIOCESE OF ST. PETERSBURG
Office of the Bishop

February 4, 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Like many of you, I have been sickened at the legislation that was recently passed in New York, and proposed legislation debated in Virginia. In New York State, The Reproductive Health Act, as it is called, makes it legal to perform an abortion up until the time of birth under certain circumstances. In my opinion, this can be called nothing less than infanticide or murder.

The Catholic Church has always promoted the sanctity of human life from conception to natural death. I call on all people of good will to join us in our efforts. It should be a universal belief on the part of society that each life is precious and is a gift from God. Then, the right to life will be a fundamental human right that will be protected. I firmly believe that if society fails to protect life at its most innocent and vulnerable stage in the womb, then what guarantee is there that life will be respected and protected at any stage?

I was recently asked what can be done to address this serious matter which threatens the unborn. I believe that we need to use our right to vote to elect legislators who believe in the sanctity of life and will promote legislation to protect life, not destroy it. It is incumbent on each of us to know where a candidate for office stands on life issues before casting a vote for them. Among the many issues we may consider before voting, certainly life issues must be at the top of the list.

In addition, I believe that we need to advocate for the lives of the unborn whenever possible. I urge you to participate in the annual March for Life in Washington, D.C. or the Florida March for Life in St. Augustine, support the many Pregnancy Centers throughout our diocese, and contact lawmakers to let them know that you stand for life and demand the same of them.

Finally, never underestimate the power of prayer to change minds and hearts. May Mary, Mother of All Life, help us to respect human life from the moment of conception to the moment of natural death. Amen.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory Parkes
Bishop of St. Petersburg

Safe Haven Sunday: Equipping the Family, Safeguarding Children

The family home is to be a safe haven. But the inappropriate use of technology in the home deprives it of this role and is the greatest threat to the sanctity of marriages and families today. Pornography and other online threats are often one click away, and parents can feel overwhelmed with not knowing how to best protect their children in our fast-paced digital world.

Next weekend, March 2-3, 2019, the Diocese of St. Petersburg is taking a bold step to help families by celebrating Safe Haven Sunday. This awareness day will provide access to practical resources that any caring adult can use to protect themselves and our young people from online risks. Please join us with your prayers and presence as we prepare for this unique event. To learn more, please visit <http://www.dosp.org/freedom-from-porn>.

OUR STUDENT MISSIONARIES - UPDATES

Dear Fr. Tom,

Fan Into Flame has passed, evangelistic men's groups bore through the semester, and winter is slightly confused. A lot of time has gone and God has done many things. I hope to share a few.

Mid November we drove over to the other cold state of Wisconsin for our Fan Into Flame retreat. "I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God" (2 Timothy 1:6). This was an awesome chance to take some of the students we had been out-reaching to into the woods for some of the age old Christian Kool-aid. But in all seriousness, we had 90 students come on this retreat with a deep desire to catch the fire of Christ's love. Our time consisted of talks, worship, snow football (playing football in deep snow) and small groups. I gave the opening talk on the Father's love. The Lord had put it on my heart to share that God's love for us is not a statement, but it's a story. Not only does God love us, but he has shown his love to us throughout history. I concluded with the truth that God's love is not only a story, but a Son. That the Author of our lives stepped into his story to make manifest in full his love.

On our last night together we had a prayer meeting. We worshipped and prayed over one another. The highlight of my year happened during that time. One of my small groups had all come together on the retreat and so I continued to lead our small group times with them. For the prayer meeting we were all instructed to get in our small groups and pray for one another. It was during this time that all of the guys in the group broke down in humility before the love of God. Each professing their need and desire for the Lordship of Christ in their lives. At the beginning of the year, each of these men had stepped onto campus with no desire to maintain their faith, if they had one at all. But here they were by the grace of God, encountering the very love that brought them into existence. Amen. After the retreat we met up and discussed. They each explained how impacted they were and how the desire won't dissipate. One said that he keeps sneaking off to pray, or sing praise and worship in his dorm! What an amazing God we have. Since then we still continue to meet, each of the guys growing in their relationship with one another and with the Father.

Oddly enough there are not snow piles around every corner. Although it's cold enough for snow, a few spells of high 30 degree weather has moved it all to ice. Icy roads, icy sidewalks, but more importantly: the Ice-rink! With the winter comes endless hockey in the backyard. Yep, we built a hockey rink out back. It has been so fun to get the community together and play the state sport. Needless to say I have injured myself. My broken wrist wasn't from hockey, although I would have preferred it had been. In the middle of the night, while I was asleep on the top bunk, my inherited sleep walking tendency turned on. Next thing I knew I had flown off the bed and landed on my wrist. A cast once a year isn't too bad, but definitely not preferable.

I am anticipating a few things as the new semester begins. I am most excited to continuing discipling these men in small groups and working with my team to build up a radical Christian culture. I heard it said recently that we need more John the Baptist's today, men who take his words to Christ personally: "He must increase and I must decrease." Less focus on myself and more on Christ and my brother.

Please continue to pray for this ministry. A few prayer requests for myself: The SPO chapter at the University of Minnesota has asked me to give the Father's love talk at their Fan into Flame in February. Please pray that I would be able to articulate what God has been speaking. Also, I am discerning what to do next year. I have peace as I look forward because God has been faithful. As it stands, I am considering staying on staff for one more year. This would free me to discern vocational decisions, as well as see through some of the work that God has begun these past couple years.

I am overjoyed as I anticipate the next semester. I constantly pray for you, and am greatly encouraged by your prayers.

In Christ,
Brennan

P.S. The weather did indeed drop to below -50 degrees since I originally wrote this. The Lord knows how to purify his servants, haha!

Hello St. Jerome's Parish Family!

My name is Kaitlyn Russo. I am a senior at Florida State University where I am double majoring in French and Religious Studies. I feel very blessed (and admittedly a little proud) to call St. Jerome's my home parish. Attending the 9:00 Sunday Mass with my parents, my two younger sisters, and my younger brother is always a highlight of my time spent at home.

Since moving up to Tallahassee in 2015, a priority of mine has been to find an equally vibrant and faith-filled community. As always, the Lord provided and has gifted me with an incredible community to belong to. This group, the Catholic Student Union, (known around campus as CSU), has played a tremendous role in leading me to Christ and in my own personal conversion. It is a group of hundreds of college-aged men and women who are on fire for Christ, dedicated to bringing His light onto FSU's campus. Trust me when I say, this group is as countercultural as it sounds.

Right in the heart of a large, secular, college campus, this community strives for excellence by responding to Jesus' call to discipleship in today's world. As a group, we meet several times each week for prayer, worship, adoration, scripture study, Mass, volunteering, and often to hang out and enjoy one another. It is hard to say just how much of an impact this group has had in my college career and more broadly in my life. CSU has provided the space, the tools, and the support for me to grow in my personal relationship with Jesus, while also providing me with many of what I can confidently say are lifetime friendships. This year, I am so excited to say that I have been given an opportunity to give back to this group that has changed my life by serving as their Vice President.

As Vice President, my primary commitments are to prayer, to evangelization, and to promoting a positive Catholic presence at FSU. While the role of the President is to look inward and look after the 99, my role is to look out onto campus and focus on reaching the 1 (Matthew 8:12). This is a large task, which is why I would like to ask for your help. First and foremost, please keep me and CSU in your prayers - we need all the grace we can get!! Secondly, if you know any students at FSU whom you think would be interested in getting involved with CSU, please feel free to send them my way! I would love to connect with you or your student over email. Lastly, if you would like to donate to my mission, any donation is greatly appreciated.

CSU is much more than an extracurricular; it is a place where the next generation of the Church is being formed. If you would like to see what we are doing or learn more about us, please check us out at fsucatholic.org. Thank you immensely for all of your support. St. Jerome's is in my prayers!

St. Jerome Catechesis of the Good Shepherd
 All About the Atrium

“What’s going on in the atria?”

Parables ... Jesus’ primary teaching method is the telling of parables. The evangelists report a great number of parables, noting that Jesus used them to teach many things (Matthew 13). Moreover, Matthew states that Jesus would never speak to the crowds except in parables (13:34). - Sofia Cavalletti

A Little Reminder

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd will not take place in the atria (Mass is class) March 10, 11, 12

The Parable of the Mustard Seed is found in all three levels of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd and the children, no matter what age, tell us that it is one of their favorites. The older child is able to articulate that they are able to discover within two verses of scripture, that something seemingly so tiny and insignificant contains such power and strength to grow into a gigantic tree. This parable is so short, yet we continue to offer it to the children throughout their years in the atrium: the child will hear it when they are three or four years old, when they are older and again when they are eleven and twelve. What is it about this parable? Jesus said this is why I have come to proclaim the Kingdom of God.

He proposed another parable to them.....

“The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants. It becomes a large bush, and the ‘birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.’” - Matthew 13: 31-32

Share your sacred space at home....

We would love to see photos of your prayer tables at home or photos of your children at your prayer table. One family out of all who share photos will be randomly chosen to receive the Little Gospel: The Kingdom of God and the Mustard Seed. Please submit your photos to: faithformation@stjeromeonline.org
