A Special Edition of From the Pastor

Dear Friends:

Bishop Gregory Parkes, Bishop of the Diocese of St. Petersburg, issued a statement announcing that the general dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days for Catholics in the Diocese of St. Petersburg will expire on the Vigil of Pentecost, Saturday, May 22, 2021. Details about these particular dispensations can be found on the diocesan website (www.dosp.org/coronavirus) and diocesan social media sites.

Please see page 5 of this bulletin for additional information from Bishop Parkes regarding particular dispensations.

Florida Governor Ron DeSantis signed an executive order on Monday, May 3, 2021, that immediately suspended the state's remaining Covid-19 public health restrictions. Governor DeSantis acknowledged that the private sector can still require masks and enforce social distancing and other protective measures. In addition to this allowance by our Governor, we continue to be aware of the guidelines put out by the CDC encouraging the wearing of masks and the continued necessity of social distancing. It has been our desire from the beginning of the COVID-19 crisis to keep our community safe. We recognize that St. Jerome parish is composed of many senior parishioners who have are part of the vulnerable population that have been affected most by the coronavirus. Also, at this time the number of people fully vaccinated in Pinellas County is 37.3%. Please see <https://data.democratandchronicle.com/covid-19-vaccine-tracker/florida/pinellas-county/12103/> for any updates to this statistic. It seems prudent to continue to encourage those attending Mass at St. Jerome to wear masks and continue to social distance. In addition, recently two parishes in our Diocese had to close down temporarily due to COVID being present among the priests, staff and parishioners.

I would like to mention that from the beginning we have encouraged the wearing of masks but have not enforced mask wearing. We were aware that there are some unable to wear masks due to health reasons. My observations have been that most of those attending Mass have worn masks all during this crisis. We are also aware that there are differing views regarding the wearing of masks. It would seem best to continue to be cautious and if wearing masks and social distancing assists in keeping someone vulnerable safe from the virus we would want to do so.

Our plan to transition to a more normal spiritual and social environment here at St. Jerome is presented on pages 3 and 4 of this bulletin.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION AND MISSION

Q: What can I do to actively witness to my faith?

M: Continue to remind others of what Hebrews 7:25 says, "[Jesus] is always able to save those who approach God through Him, since He lives forever to make intercession for them."

In Gratitude to God For His Gifts to Us

“What do you possess that you have not received? But if you have received it, why are you boasting as if you did not receive it?” 1 Corinthians 4:7

Stewardship isn't just about being a good manager of our time, our talents and our treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires - to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thank you for sharing His gifts.

CONGRATULATIONS! to Terry Porter on her Retirement from St. Jerome Early Childhood Center

Terry came to St. Jerome Early Childhood Center in September 1994 looking for a preschool for her oldest daughter. Her daughter started school the next day and Terry never looked back. For four years she served as a volunteer with the ECC and then, when her youngest was ready to go on to Kindergarten, Terry was blessed with the opportunity to take over the position of Office Manager for the ECC. She has dedicated the last 22 years to helping make St. Jerome ECC the best preschool in the area. She has been the smiling face at the door to greet the many families that have entrusted us with their most precious treasures. She has made it easier for families to make the transition from having their children at home to going to school and then going on to Kindergarten. Please wish her well as she moves toward retirement. She will be very missed!

Bishop Gregory Parkes' Specific Instances Where the Dispensation Will Continue

One does not have an obligation to attend Mass on Sunday in the following circumstances:

- 1) You are ill, or your health condition would be significantly compromised if you were to contract an infectious illness (i.e., you have underlying conditions or are in a high-risk category). Please use the dispensation and do not attend Mass.
- 2) You exhibit flu-like symptoms. Please use the dispensation and do not attend Mass.
- 3) You have good reason to think you might be asymptomatic of a contagious illness (e.g., you were in recent contact with someone who tested positive for a contagious illness such as COVID or influenza). Please use the dispensation and do not attend Mass.
- 4) You care for the sick, homebound, or infirmed.
- 5) You are pregnant.
- 6) Those 65 years of age or older (per the CDC's recommendation of high-risk individuals).
- 7) You cannot attend Mass through no fault of your own (e.g., no Mass is offered, you are infirmed, or, while wanting to go, you are prevented for some reason you cannot control (e.g., your ride did not show up, the church was at capacity).
- 8) If you have significant and reasonable fear or anxiety of becoming ill by being at Mass.

God, who is rich in mercy,
made us alive with Christ.
- Ephesians 2:4-5

At the first Wednesday night's meeting, we will have a 30 -minute officer's meeting after which we will meet with all interested parties to share in our faith journey, pray, and learn how to increase the signs of the Holy Spirit's presence within us.

During the second Wednesday of the month, we will have a regular business meeting and learn what the various needs of our parish and community are in order to fulfill Jesus' commands: "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."
