

St. Jerome Catholic Church

As parishioners of St. Jerome and as Catholic disciples of Jesus Christ, we respond to our Lord's invitation to walk with Him in the Sacraments and prayer, to deepen our faith through lifelong formation, to serve those in need and to invite others to the fullness of the Catholic faith through sharing His Holy Word and His Teaching.

What does the Catechism teach about taking care of our health?

#2288: Life and physical health are precious gifts entrusted to us by God. We must take reasonable care of them, taking into account the needs of others and the common good.

#2290: The virtue of temperance disposes us to avoid every kind of excess: the abuse of food, alcohol, tobacco, or medicine. Those incur grave guilt who, by drunkenness or a love of speed, endanger their own and others’ safety on the road, at sea, or in the air.

#2291: The use of drugs inflicts very grave damage on human health and life. Their use, except on strictly therapeutic grounds, is a grave offense. Clandestine production of and trafficking in drugs are scandalous practices. They constitute direct co-operation in evil, since they encourage people to practices gravely contrary to the moral law.

THIS WEEK’S QUESTION AND MISSION

Q: What specific action can I take to show my commitment to remain a disciple of the Lord/?

M: Think of the people you know who were “scandalized by religion,” because of ill treatment by church members, hypocritical example, or inability to reconcile religious talk with the world they saw. Pray for them on their journey, and offer them acceptance.

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS

Part 17 - The Liturgy of the Word - The Homily

The homily, an integral part of the Liturgy of the Word, is a continuation of God’s saving message which elicits faith and conversion. It is neither exegesis nor moral exhortation, but a joyful proclamation of God’s saving deeds in Christ. Basing his preaching on the liturgical texts, the homilist breaks the bread of God’s word by actualizing it, by showing how God is continuing to act and speak among his people today. Through the homily, the members of the assembly are called to become a holy people so that they can better celebrate the Eucharist and offer themselves with and through Christ in the Eucharistic Prayer.

In Gratitude to God For His Gifts to Us

“What do you possess that you have not received? But if you have received it, why are you boasting as if you did not receive it?” 1 Corinthians 4:7

Stewardship isn't just about being a good manager of our time, our talents and our treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires - to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thank you for sharing His gifts.
