FROM THE PASTOR'S CHAIR

Fr. Tom's Column

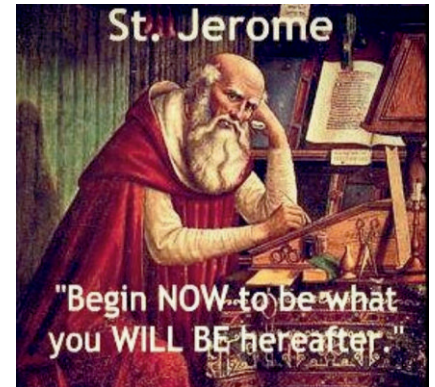

Dear Friends:

We normally have a special gathering to celebrate the patron of our parish, St. Jerome, on the Sunday nearest his feast day, September 30th. We will forgo the celebration this year but I am grateful to our Fellowship Committee that has arranged to present every household with a gift at the end of all of our Sunday Masses this weekend in honor of St. Jerome. We thank our Fellowship Committee for their kindness.

I invite you to learn more about St. Jerome by reading the biography which begins below.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

Who is St. Jerome?

Saint Jerome was born in Strido, Dalmatia (Croatia) in 347. After being educated by his father, he was sent to Rome where he studied classical literature and rhetoric. While there, he was baptized by Pope Liberius in 366.

While in Rome, he eagerly studied Greek, Latin, history and philosophy and built his own library diligently copying most of the works he read. Being versatile, he also enjoyed others in games and spectacles. Leaving Rome in his early twenties he traveled to Trier in Gaul and transcribed the works of St. Hilary. After returning to Aquileia, he continued his theological studies.

About 373, he made a pilgrimage to the east, arranging to take in cities in Asia Minor. Reaching Antioch in Syria, he arranged to stay for several months. There he pursued humanistic and monastic studies, although he soon turned from the classics to Christian writings. Then he moved to the desert of Chalcia, southeast of Antioch, living as a hermit for five years. Now he included his much-loved study of Scripture and copy work.

As a young man, Jerome did not easily forget the delights of Rome and found himself homesick for a world of thought, study and discussion. However, he had a deep spiritual experience in a dream and was accused of being a "Ciceronian, not a Christian". He then decided to study Hebrew to overcome this temptation. He translated Scripture directly from Hebrew and organized a workshop dedicating himself to the Bible and Theology; however, this dedication was not always kept.

Since his solitude was disrupted by quarrelling monks, he returned to Antioch in 378 where he heard Apollinaris the Younger speak. This experience influenced him to become a priest, but he remained free of a diocese. He returned to Rome and studied under Gregory Nazianzus in Turkey.

By 382 he returned to Rome and Pope Damasus appointed him as secretary and librarian. He was also commissioned to render the Bible into Latin. This elegant writing and asceticism, together with friends, promised great things. He was spoken of as the next Pope; however, his satirical attacks on the manners of the Roman clergy caused him to make enemies. continued-->

WHO IS ST. JEROME?

& October Calendar

Since he enjoyed the patronage of Damasus, little could be done against him. The death of Damasus enabled an investigation and he was banished from Rome. Then in 385, he left Osta for Antioch. A few months later a number of virgins and widows traveled to Antioch where they met Jerome. The party settled in Bethlehem where a monastery and convent were established. This was the beginning of his literary period and where he remained until his death.

It was in Bethlehem that he began his productive literary period, both his Biblical commentaries and his work on the Latin Bible. In addition to this work he helped establish monasteries. The needy were not neglected and his work on Scripture continued. Jerome translated most of the Old Testament from Hebrew and some from Greek. Also, he wrote Scriptural commentaries, biographies, a history of writers and corresponded greatly. He also preached, held conferences and taught the young.

His greatest achievement was, of course, the translation of the Bible, still used by the Catholic Church, and setting the standard for the King James Version 1,200 years later. With the influx of barbarism, his world became dangerous. Rome was sacked; Huns and Pagans invaded and destroyed houses of learning.

In addition to his Biblical work, he wrote extensively on varied topics, translations, heresies and commentary including all the prophets, books of the Bible and polemical treatises. He continued to live in Bethlehem for thirty-six years and was involved in quarrels over doctrine, disputed with St. Augustine, the heretic Jovinian, the Bishop of Jerusalem and with Rufinus over the writing of Origen. A difficult and hot-tempered man, he made enemies, but his correspondence with both friends and enemies is of interest, particularly with Augustine. Also, his scholarship is unsurpassed in the Church, helping to create the culture of the middle ages by developing allegorical and realistic schools of writing.

Jerome died in 419, and was buried under the Church of the Nativity close to the site of the birth of Jesus. Now his relics rest in the Basilica of Santa Maria Maggiore in Rome. In 1989, he became a Father, and Doctor of the Church. His feast day is observed on September 30th. He is the patron saint of librarians.

There are many paintings of St. Jerome, one showing him with an attendant lion from whose paw he removed a thorn. Others show him with a tasseled cardinal's hat. The pictures of him beating his breast with a stone as he fasts in the desert are probably more true to life than any of the others.

Question: What aspect of my selfhood leads me into sin?
What must I do to remove that aspect?

Mission: Resolve to 'cut off' one aspect of your behavior that keeps you from being as good as you are called to be.

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS

Preparation of the Altar

22. "The Christian altar is by its very nature a table of sacrifice and at the same time a table of the paschal banquet; a unique altar on which the sacrifice of the cross is perpetuated in mystery throughout the ages until Christ comes; a table at which the Church's children assemble to give thanks to God and receive the body and blood of Christ" (Dedication of a Church and an Altar, Chapter IV, no. 4). Its preparation at this time makes clear that something new is beginning. Just as the ambo was the focal point of the liturgy of the word, so that the altar-table is the center of the eucharistic liturgy.

*All good giving and every perfect gift is from above.
James 1:17*

Stewardship

Stewardship isn't just about being a good manager of our time, our talents and our treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires - to employ them not for us, but for His glory.

Thank you for sharing His gifts!

MAINTENANCE COMMITTEE

St. Jerome has re-formed a maintenance committee to work with Chris McBride, our new parish manager. The committee will be comprised of parishioners who have special expertise in areas of the maintenance need. The committee will coordinate with the Finance Council to operate within our budget.

Our campus is large and there are seven buildings which require constant attention as well as landscape work. Due to the age of our facilities and new technologies, there is a lengthy list of projects that need attention.

Adult Confirmation Classes

ARE YOU AN ADULT WHO HAS NOT BEEN CONFIRMED?

Adult Catholics (ages 15 years and above) who have been baptized, received First Holy Communion, and practicing their faith but have not celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation are invited to participate in a preparation program.

In the Sacrament of Confirmation, the individual's baptism is reinforced and sealed. This sacrament, like baptism, may only be celebrated once. It is closely linked with Baptism in that there is an anointing with oil (Chrism), laying on of hands, and a special activity of the Holy Spirit. When celebrated apart from Baptism and First Communion, the bishop or a priest designated by him is the minister of Confirmation. The preparation program is comprised of six sessions in which you, the adult, will be advised of the process for this preparation and what is required of them.

SESSIONS BEGIN THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 2021.

For further information and to sign up for these sessions, please contact Sister Lucia: (727) 595-4610 or
