PASTOR'S COLUMN

Fr. Tom Morgan

12/26/21

Dear Friends:

We celebrate this Sunday the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. I have included below teaching from the Catechism of the Catholic Church regarding the family. In addition, a prayer for the family is also included. Let us continue to reflect on our call to imitate the example of the Holy Family and to pray for healing in all families in need.

The Mass schedule for the Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God is as follows: Friday, December 31st, 4:00PM and Saturday January 1st, 7:30AM and 9:00AM. The Mass schedule for the Epiphany is as follows: Saturday January 1st, Vigils: 4:00PM & 5:30PM and Sunday January 2nd, 7:30AM, 9:00AM, 10:45AM, 12:30PM, and 5:00PM.

The last 7:00PM Wednesday Daily Mass will take place this Wednesday, December 29th. It is our hope to have a Wednesday evening Mass during Lent and Advent.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

Catechism of the Catholic Church: II. THE FAMILY AND SOCIETY

2207 The family is the original cell of social life. It is the natural society in which husband and wife are called to give themselves in love and in the gift of life. Authority, stability, and a life of relationships within the family constitute the foundations for freedom, security, and fraternity within society. The family is the community in which, from childhood, one can learn moral values, begin to honor God, and make good use of freedom. Family life is an initiation into life in society.

2208 The family should live in such a way that its members learn to care and take responsibility for the young, the old, the sick, the handicapped, and the poor. There are many families who are at times incapable of providing this help. It devolves then on other persons, other families, and, in a subsidiary way, society to provide for their needs: "Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained from the world."

2209 The family must be helped and defended by appropriate social measures. Where families cannot fulfill their responsibilities, other social bodies have the duty of helping them and of supporting the institution of the family. Following the principle of subsidiarity, larger communities should take care not to usurp the family's prerogatives or interfere in its life.

2210 The importance of the family for the life and well-being of society entails a particular responsibility for society to support and strengthen marriage and the family. Civil authority should consider it a grave duty "to acknowledge the true nature of marriage and the family, to protect and foster them, to safeguard public morality, and promote domestic prosperity."

2211 The political community has a duty to honor the family, to assist it, and to ensure especially:

- the freedom to establish a family, have children, and bring them up in keeping with the family's own moral and religious convictions;
- the protection of the stability of the marriage bond and the institution of the family;
- the freedom to profess one's faith, to hand it on, and raise one's children in it, with the necessary means and institutions;
- the right to private property, to free enterprise, to obtain work and housing, and the right to emigrate;
- in keeping with the country's institutions, the right to medical care, assistance for the aged, and family benefits;
- the protection of security and health, especially with respect to dangers like drugs, pornography, alcoholism, etc.;
- the freedom to form associations with other families and so to have representation before civil authority.

2212 The fourth commandment illuminates other relationships in society. In our brothers and sisters we see the children of our parents; in our cousins, the descendants of our ancestors; in our fellow citizens, the children of our country; in the baptized, the children of our mother the Church; in every human person, a son or daughter of the One who wants to be called "our Father." In this way our relationships with our neighbors are recognized as personal in character. The neighbor is not a "unit" in the human collective; he is "someone" who by his known origins deserves particular attention and respect.

A PRAYER FOR FAMILIES

Pray at Home

Prayer for Families

God, Our Father, loving and merciful, bring together and keep all families in perfect unity
of love and mutual support.

Instill in each member the spirit of understanding and affection for each other.

Keep quarrels and bitterness far from them,
and for their occasional failures
instill forgiveness and peace.

May the mutual love and affection of parents set a good example.

Instill in children self-respect,
that they may respect others
and grow in mature independence.

May the mutual affection and respect of families
be a sign of Christian life here and hereafter, through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Amen.

12/30 - 9:30AM Exposition/10:20AM Benediction

12/31 - Parish Office Closed - New Year's Day celebrated

4:00PM Vigil Mass - Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God

1/1/22 - Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God: Mass Times: 7:30AM and 9:00AM

QUESTION: How can I apply the lessons from scripture to the various families I belong to: my immediate family, my extended family, my parish family, my family at school or work, the entire human family?

MISSION: As the year comes to a close, dedicate yourself to thankfulness. Begin fostering a grateful heart by praying often, thanking God for the people, the events, and the gifts of each experience. Your prayer does not have to be a formal affair, but a brief closing of the eyes, a breathed blessing.

Celebrate New Year's Eve at St Jerome Parish

The Marian Spirituality team and the Knights of Columbus invite you to a Rosary procession around the pond and Peace Prayer at the Grotto following the 4 p.m. Mass on December 31st. All are welcome!

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS: NARRATIVE OF THE INSTITUTION

35. Just as the eucharistic prayer is part of a continuous action extending from the preparation of the gifts to the communion, so the words of institution are part of the eucharistic prayer which is a consecratory, thanksgiving prayer of praise. All that God has accomplished in creation and salvation history is fulfilled, signified, and made present in the person of the crucified and risen Christ. Christ's words are a promise and through the power of the Holy Spirit they accomplish what they signify: his eucharistic body and blood, his real presence with all the riches of the Kingdom.

*Priest Schedule subject to change.
**If there is a Mass intention error please contact the Receptionist in the Parish Office at (727) 595-4610.

*All good giving and every perfect gift is from above.
James 1:17*

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is more than being a good manager of one's time, talents, and treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires: to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thanks for sharing His gifts!

UPDATE FROM OUR PARISH MANAGER

Since arriving at St. Jerome in August, it has been a blessing to witness the generosity of our parishioners. I have enjoyed hearing stories from parishioners about the history of the parish and how they have encountered Christ. I look forward to hearing even more stories. I am deeply moved by the love parishioners have for St. Jerome and their generous hearts in giving time, talent, and treasure.

A month ago, Father Tom shared some financial and volunteer concerns we are having as we arise slowly from the pandemic. We have all personally faced new challenges due to the pandemic and so has our parish. While change is tough, this is an opportunity to grow closer to Christ and as a community. We have many ministries in our parish looking for an extra hand to help serve others and invite them into a relationship with Christ. We have parishioners who have not yet returned to Mass, and we are trying to find ways to reach them. We are also trying to bring our parish to a more stable place financially, while getting some important things done around the parish such as replacing the roof and replacing the red terrazzo in the church.

There are many things we need to do, but we must prioritize and be economical. We are identifying every line of spending to ensure we are being the best stewards of your monetary donations. If we ask for monetary donations, we are going to be faithful to that trust by putting it to good use.

It has been encouraging to see extra donations come in as parishioners rally us through these tough times. We want you to know how much we appreciate your generosity and sacrifice to help our community of St. Jerome. Together we will work toward growing closer to Christ and serving others through words and actions.

Peace in Christ,
Chris McBride

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks?

This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.

The Parish Office will be closed:

Monday, December 27th - Office Closed (Christmas Observed)

Friday, December 31st - Office Closed (New Year's Observed)

Christmas Song of the Week:

In the Bleak Midwinter - Christina Rossetti & Gustav Holst

A classic Christmas carol, this beautiful hymn has rich four part harmonies and deep lyrics about salvation from our tiny new Savior.

*What can I give Him, poor as I am?
 If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb.
 If I were a wise man, I would do my part.
 Yet what can I give Him? Give my heart.*
