

ST. JEROME ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

An illustration for Epiphany featuring a dark blue night sky with a large, bright yellow star and several smaller white stars. The word "Epiphany" is written in a white, cursive font with a red outline, tilted slightly. Below the sky, the silhouettes of three camels and two figures (the Three Kings) are shown against a dark horizon. The entire scene is framed by a gold border.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Fr. Tom Morgan

Dear Friends:

We are happy to provide everyone with an Epiphany home blessing kit. Since the Middle Ages, there has been a tradition that on (or near) the feast of Epiphany, we pray for God's blessing on our homes, marking the door post with chalk (an incarnational image reminding us of the dust of the earth from which we were made). We mark the main door of our home with the initials of the Magi and the numerals of the New Year, connected with crosses: "20 + C + M + B + 22". The initials remind us of the legendary names of the Magi – Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar, and also the Latin motto: Christus mansionem benedicat, "May Christ bless this house."

In the book of Exodus, the Israelites marked their doors with blood so that the Lord would pass over their homes; but in this ritual, we mark our doors with chalk as a sign that we have invited God's presence and blessing into our homes. Included in the Epiphany home blessing kit is a piece of chalk and the prayer for the blessing.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

QUESTION: How do I use both reason and faith to find my way to Jesus?

MISSION: Locate the doorway to the new Jerusalem in your life—in those who gather in worship, in a place or a circumstance—and work to keep that door wide open. Commit yourself to being open to the sacred and give encouragement to those who are struggling to find their way to the light.

Inviting Catholics Home

Here at St Jerome parish, we are passionate about Inviting Catholics home. For those who have not been attending Mass regularly or who are not participating in the Sacramental life of the Church, please know there is a home for you here. Inviting Catholics Home is a relaxed forum in which to discuss your concerns, what may have caused you to leave, and what is calling you back. Call St Jerome office 727-595-4610

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS: MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

36. The memorial acclamation not only helps sustain the assembly's attention from the end of the Sanctus to the Great Amen, but is also a manifestation of the congregation's active participation in the eucharistic prayer. Sharing in the eucharist by virtue of their baptismal priesthood, the faithful express and affirm belief that the whole mystery of the Risen Christ is present and active in the celebration.

*Priest Schedule subject to change.
If there is a Mass intention error please contact the Receptionist in the Parish Office at (727) 595-4610.

*All good giving and every perfect gift is from above.
James 1:17*

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is more than being a good manager of one's time, talents, and treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires: to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thanks for sharing His gifts!

DIOCESE OF ST. PETERSBURG
CATHOLIC MINISTRY
Appeal

Next week we will kickoff the Catholic Ministry Appeal. We invite our families to take an active role in supporting the larger Church to help those around us. The Catholic Ministry Appeal is one of the most impactful ways we can support our Catholic Church. Our diocesan support will be funded through the new Catholic Ministry Appeal, and the former "Annual Pastoral Appeal" (APA) will no longer take place. This appeal is about coming together to provide real, immediate help to those in need. Your gift helps so many people as we nurture spiritual life, embrace God's call to serve and accompany missionary disciples. For example, did you know the Catholic Ministry Appeal supports:

- 11,400 clients receiving 104,647 meals through our Catholic Charities Ministries of Mercy.
- 13,000 students enrolled and 1,300 educators and professional staff members in our 41 diocesan Catholic schools.
- 16 seminarians who are discerning a call to the priesthood for our diocese.
- 75 retired priests who still provide services and support the faith life of parishioners in all 79 of our parishes and missions.

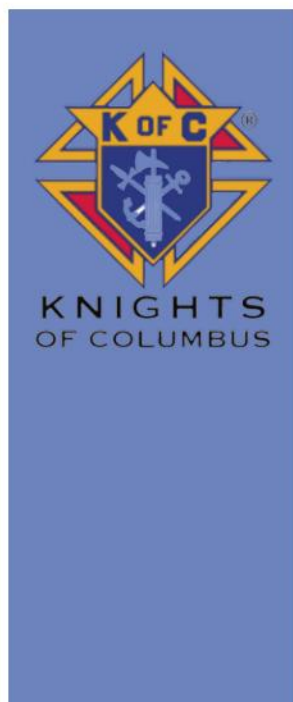

OUR COMMUNITY IS FAMILY

It's always a swell time at the Knights of Columbus breakfast! Join us for breakfast on the third Sunday of each month. Thanks for your kindness, gents!

In Service to One. In Service to All.

The Divine Mercy of Jesus Knights of Columbus

Council 17249 meets on the first and second Wednesdays of each month in the Parish Center. At the first Wednesday meeting we have a 30 minute officer's meeting. Then after, we meet with all interested parties to share our faith journey, pray, and learn how to increase the signs of the Holy Spirit's presence within us.

On the second Wednesday of the month, we hold a regular business meeting and learn what the various needs of our parish and community are in order to fulfill Jesus' commands: "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Join us for breakfast on the third Sunday of each month.

St. Jerome begins an important survey this weekend. The survey will be an insert in the Parish Bulletin and available on-line for download. Please be sure to take a bulletin next week or go to St. Jerome's website if you will be away. Response deadline will be January 9, 2022.

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks? This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.
