*“Blessed are you who are poor,
for the kingdom of God is yours.
Blessed are you who are now hungry,
for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who are now weeping,
for you will laugh.
Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude and insult you,

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Fr. Tom Morgan

2/13/22

Dear Friends:

I am happy to extend an invitation for you to be part of our "Living the Eucharist," effort during Lent 2022. Parishioners will be meeting in their homes, gathering with groups of 8-12 people for a six-week program, based on the Sunday readings year C, once a week. "Living the Eucharist," helps participants come to greater knowledge and appreciation of the Eucharist as the Sacrament of Christ's sacrifice on the Cross and His real presence in the Blessed Sacrament, in order to participate with a fuller awareness of the great mystery of God's love for us.

As a participant, you can:

- meet and befriend other parishioners.
- "break open" and reflect on the Sunday Scriptures.
- build community and face-to-face church.
- share faith and serve the spiritual journey of others.
- grow in discipleship in Jesus Christ.
- help to bring about "the Kingdom of God" in the world.

I ask that our patron, St. Jerome, intercede for us, that this opportunity may deepen our faith and relationship with our good and gracious God.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

Understanding the Mass:

LORD'S PRAYER

42. The Lord's Prayer 'is a petition both for daily food, which for Christians means also the eucharistic bread, and for forgiveness from sin, so that what is holy may be given to those who are holy' (Gl no. 56). As such it begins the community's preparation for sharing in the eucharist. After the priest paraphrases the final petition and introduces the note of peace and expectation, the people give the doxological acclamation "For the kingdom..." which in turn is thematically linked to the Lord's Prayer with its request for the complete realization of God's reign.

Correction:

The Mass on Thursday, Feb. 10, 2022 at 9:00 AM was offered for James Hamzik.

LARGE CROWDS AT MASS

For those concerned about attending Sunday Mass with large numbers the following Masses tend to have fewer people: Saturday: 5:30PM
 Sunday: 7:30AM, 12:30PM, and 5:00PM.

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks?

This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.
