PASTOR'S COLUMN

Fr. Tom Morgan

3/27/22

Dear Friends:

Throughout our lives we have often heard from the Gospels regarding the life of Jesus with His disciples. It might be helpful during Lent to consider some of the interactions and circumstances that occurred in the lives of Our Lord's first disciples. What might we observe?

Some of the disciples were introduced to Jesus through others. Jesus meets some of His disciples as they were working in their professions. Those first disciples witnessed healings and miracles. The disciples spent time and traveled with Jesus. Jesus asked questions to those first disciples. Jesus shares His mission with the disciples and commissioned them to share the Gospel, heal, and expel demons. Jesus teaches His disciples through example. Jesus washes the feet of the disciples and teaches them they must be servants as He is. The disciples are taught about suffering by Jesus. Jesus often corrected His disciples. What else?

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

COPING WITH DISTRACTIONS

by Msgr. Mike Muhr

Anyone who has ever really tried to pray reflectively knows about distractions and how frustrating they can be. I'm talking about those pesky thoughts that come barreling into our minds when we try to become still and quiet for any length of time. For me, they usually show up about one and a half minutes into my time with God.

St. Teresa of Avila struggled mightily with distractions for almost twenty years before God led her into a way of great interior communion. She suggested to her novices that they hold a picture of Jesus when they prayed so that they could remember that they were talking to a person in prayer and not just making a mental exercise.

The advice I have found most helpful is to imagine distractions as if they were a train crossing through a valley. The train comes into view and will pass on through the valley without our effort. In prayer, we would acknowledge the distraction lightly and then return to prayer as the distraction drifts out of our consciousness.

Trying to push distractions out usually only makes them more persistent and "getting on the train", well, then we know where that leads. There may be times when a certain distraction keeps coming. This could be a sign that this is exactly what the Lord wants us to pray about. In the end, though, for most of us distractions come with the territory.

Next week: "A Way to Pray."

QUESTION: How have I isolated myself and from whom? On the other hand, whom can I respond to with mercy when they return from isolation?

Mission: Prayerfully consider where you might be called to be an ambassador for Christ. As Christ's ambassador seek to be a minister of reconciliation in your family, relationships, and community.

Understanding the Mass: Invitation to Communion

48. A formal invitation to receive the Lord's body and blood is found in almost every traditional liturgy. One of the popular forms used in the east is "Holy things for the Holy!" The present Roman form strikes a balance between a worthiness rooted in baptism and a humility possessed by the centurion. The assembly is invited to look at the eucharistic bread and to express reverence, confidence, and faith.

Lifeline Needs Your Generosity

Lifeline served 87 families comprised of 283 people. Parishioners donated 261 bags of food last week for a total of 781 bags so far this month.

Lifeline also completed a flooring upgrade project last week in our facility. The floors had become seriously worn and difficult to maintain after many years of hard use. Lifeline volunteers worked many extra hours to totally empty the facility so the work could be done while at the same time remaining open to serve those who come to us for help. We are grateful to all who helped last week, especially to the young parishioners who greatly helped with the heavy lifting. The end results are impressive.

Before:

After:

The recent record numbers of people coming for assistance have seriously depleted our food supply. As food prices continue to increase and supply chains are strained, we are continually in need of the non-perishable items listed here. We thank all for your continued generosity.

- Boxed macaroni & cheese
- Boxed mashed potatoes
- Beef stew
- Hearty canned soups
- Canned pork & beans
- Peanut butter
- Jellies & jams

- Canned vegetables (corn, beans, carrots)
- Canned tuna/Chicken/turkey
- Pasta/spaghetti
- Pasta sauce
- Canned fruit
- Rice (2 lb bags)
- Cereal

Donations can be left at the Chapel which is open 24 hours a day or you may bring them with you when attending Sunday or Daily Mass. Bins are located inside the entrances of the Church. The need continues to be incredibly high. We thank all for your continued generosity!!

Do you have the spiritual gift of Hospitality? Can you say:

- I feel comfortable around strangers and care deeply about how my church welcomes them.
- I enjoy providing a safe environment for those in need.
- I view relationships as opportunities to pass on God's love.

If so, perhaps Christ is calling you to the Hospitality Ministry!

Our purpose is to offer the love of Christ to our guests and welcome them in such a way that they would be transformed from strangers to friends. We are seeking to GROW our Hospitality Ministry by encouraging a spirit of hospitality and unity, breaking down barriers of formality, and extending a warm and loving welcome to all who come to our parish. So--we need YOU! To learn more or sign up, contact Sr. Lucia at 727-410-1175 or by email.

On second Wednesdays, we hold a regular business meeting to learn what the various needs of our parish and community are in order to fulfill Jesus' commands: "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Join us for breakfast on the third Sunday of each month.

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks?

This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.

If discouragement overwhelms you, think of the faith of St. Joseph; if anxiety has its grip on you, think of the hope of St. Joseph.
