PASTOR'S COLUMN

Fr. Tom Morgan

April 17, 2022

Dear Friends:

Welcome to all who accompany us on this holiest of days. Jesus taught, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die." (John 11:25 & 26) We respond today as we celebrate Easter, "Yes, Lord, I believe." I invite each of us as we witness God's commitment to decide in our hearts to live with God instead of apart from God. Let us seek to be with God in those places He has chosen to make His home.

Happy Easter! He has risen!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

OUR CATHOLIC TREASURE .....

by Msgr. Mike Muhr

Last time, I explained one way to pray, but we in the Catholic Church have a rich spiritual heritage which includes so many ways to pray. The continuum stretches all the way from the silence and contemplativeness of the Carthusians to the Spirit-filled song and spontaneity of the charismatic renewal.

One thing that's been an unexpected gift to me companioning people in spiritual direction over the years has been to witness the unique ways that God connects with us. What a beautiful gift of love that God does not demand that we speak in one spiritual language, but rather God comes to us to connect to our individual personalities and our own ways of understanding so as to draw us closer in a bond of ever-deepening communion.

Of course, our central prayer as a family of faith is the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the Sacrifice of the Mass. Flowing from this unimaginable gift have been many other ways of praying. Some of these we inherited from our common Jewish heritage with Jesus, and some have emerged over the centuries. Just think of the variety: the liturgy of the hours, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Lectio Divina practiced and popularized by St. Benedict and his followers, the rosary, the Stations of the Cross, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, various forms of contemplation, and a whole compendium of novenas and other devotions.

If you'd like to find out more about some of these ways of praying, I recommend 13 Powerful Ways to Pray by Fr. Eamon Tobin, a priest of the Diocese of Orlando. Not only does Fr. Tobin describe each way, but he offers suggestions on how to begin to pray with each method. I found his book very accessible and I hope you do, too!

I hope these past four articles have been helpful to you but remember as much as you want a closer relationship with God, God desires you so much more!

QUESTION: Have I heard the reassuring voice of the Lord? While I listen for his voice, how do I witness to the difference the Risen Lord makes in my life?

MISSION: Bring new life to someone as an expression of Easter faith. Call or visit someone who is isolated. Share food and company. Be a source of joy to those who meet you. Give someone a reason to shout Alleluia!

"Bring Them Anyway" by Grace Bellon, Blessed is She

Dear mothers taking their children to Mass this weekend, At times you'll wonder if it's all really worth it, because Mass is always a battle, and even though you believe whole-heartedly in what's taking place, most of the time you're so worn and distracted, it feels as though you yourself haven't gotten anything out of Mass. Lean on Truth, push through clouded emotions, and bring yourself and your kids to Mass anyway.

Once (or twice, or multiple times) you may leave Mass in tears, because raising kids in the Faith is so hard, and you may not be getting much support from fellow parishioners, the pastor, or even your spouse. Remember that the Lord is near to the broken-hearted, and bring your kids to Mass anyway.

In the end, you'll stand before our loving and merciful God, and you'll see it was never even about you and them. It was always between you and God anyway.

Congratulations, St. Jerome
Early Childhood Center!

The administration, teaching staff, and families of St. Jerome Early Childhood Center are to be congratulated for earning re-accreditation through the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) – the world's largest organization working on behalf of young children. Less than 10% of all childcare centers, preschools and kindergartens nationally achieve this recognition.

SJ ECC is the only Catholic preschool in Pinellas County to have the distinction of NAEYC accreditation. This high-quality learning environment provides a faith-based education with half and full day options, an Outdoor Classroom, research-based curriculum, and highly trained staff.

Tours are available for prospective students ages two to four years old. Call the school office at (727)596-9491 to learn more.

What is the Exsultet?

The Exsultet is a stunning, triumphant song calling on the people of God to rejoice because Christ has conquered death and is alive! Also known as The Easter Proclamation, it is sung in total darkness, save the light of the Paschal Candle, near the start of the Easter Vigil.

Here are some of the beautiful lines from this lyrical prayer, along with some comments from our music director, Tom Kurt.

Tom says, "This opening section is a favorite!"

"Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven, exult, let Angel ministers of God exult, let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King's triumph! Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King, let all corners of the earth be glad, knowing an end to gloom and darkness. Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice, arrayed with the lightning of his glory, let this holy building shake with joy, filled with the mighty voices of the peoples. Therefore, dearest friends, standing in the awesome glory of this holy light, invoke with me, I ask you, the mercy of God almighty, that he, who has been pleased to number me, though unworthy, among the Levites, may pour into me his light unshadowed, that I may sing this candle's perfect praises."

"The sanctifying power of this night dispels wickedness, washes faults away, restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to mourners.

O truly blessed night, when things of heaven are wed to those of earth and divine to the human."

Tom says, "The first part of that really resonates for me with the situation in Ukraine."

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks?

This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.
