July 17, 2022
Dear Friends,

DIocese of St. Petersburg
CATHOLIC
MINISTRY
Appeal

We are delighted to welcome back Deacon Cris Stout this weekend. He is here to preach at all Masses this weekend and give an update on the Diocese's Catholic Ministry Appeal and St. Jerome's impressive contributions.

This week, I invite you to reflect on
Best of the Catechism
Discipleship:

"To become a child in relation to God is the condition for entering the kingdom. For this, we must humble ourselves and become little."
CCC #526

"Everyone is called to enter the kingdom. First announced to the children of Israel, this messianic kingdom is intended to accept men of all nations. To enter it, one must first accept Jesus' word..." CCC #543

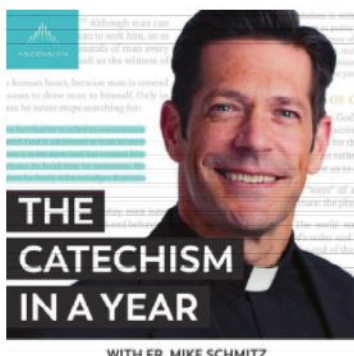

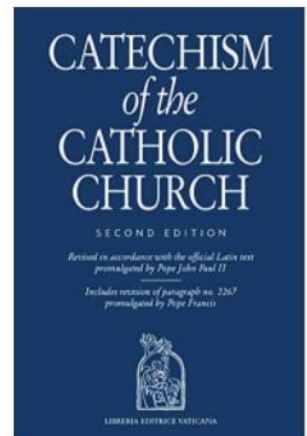

"From the beginning, Jesus associated his disciples with his own life, revealed the mystery of the Kingdom to them, and gave them a share in his mission, joy, and sufferings..."
CCC #787

"Christ Jesus always did what was pleasing to the Father, and always lived in perfect communion with him. Likewise Christ's disciples are invited to live in the sight of the Father 'who sees in secret'; in order to become 'perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect.' " CCC #1693

"Christians can strive to be 'imitators of God as beloved children, and walk in love'; by conforming their thoughts, words and actions to the 'mind...which is yours in Christ Jesus,;' and by following his example." CCC #1694

"Becoming a disciple of Jesus means accepting the invitation to belong to God's family, to live in conformity with His way of life..." CCC #2233

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

QUESTION: Am I hospitable to others, to those in need of food and rest, or just in need of company? Do I see the Lord in those in need?

MISSION: Be a good host to God this week. Be on the lookout for God on the road, or Jesus in the unlikely stranger. Remember that Jesus comes to us, too, in the friend at our door. Welcome God as guest, however the Holy One comes.

Every Human Life is Sacred: Local Resources for Crisis Pregnancies Needs and other Life Issues

Our parish and diocese is committed to helping the most vulnerable and in need at all stages. In light of the recent Supreme Court decision, we'd like to highlight this month some of the resources available to those in need with an unexpected or difficult pregnancy. In addition, our clergy would be happy to assist you with spiritual counsel, and our parish staff are happy to help connect you to the following.

ALPHA HOUSE (PINELLAS)

The mission of ALPHA House of Pinellas County is to prevent the cycle of homelessness and child abuse by providing a safe residence and supportive services to homeless pregnant women and babies.

ALPHA empowers women with the job skills, education, parenting skills, positive self-esteem, and spiritual foundation necessary to obtain permanent housing, successfully raise their children, and contribute to the community as self-sustaining mothers. ALPHA also invests in the community with an outreach program that provides hundreds of families with necessary child care items each year.

St. Jerome parish has had parishioners participate in the ALPHA House gala and support the ministry in other ways. To learn more, visit: www.alphahousepinellas.org

LIFE CHOICES FAMILY MEDICAL (LUTZ)

LifeChoices Family Medical is a multi-area practice. They are a primary care provider that offers pediatrics and adolescent care; SPECIALIZING in women's health including prenatal care and gynecological medical services, especially serving women without health insurance AND adult family medicine. They provide pregnancy and postpartum support services offering educational opportunities and ongoing support. This includes childcare during OB/doctor's appointments, classes on parenting, childhood development, art therapy, and other wellbeing courses to assist especially parents who have found themselves overwhelmed or perhaps unprepared for parenthood, and particularly helping those parents in need "earn" the ability to shop in their resources supply area.

LifeChoices is a certified, official FertilityCare™ Center practicing Restorative Reproductive Medicine serving women, men and the entire family!! To learn more, visit: <https://lifechoicesmedical.com>

FOSTER CARE MINISTRY

There are so many ways to support children in foster care: becoming foster parents (for long term or even weekend placements), becoming respite caregivers (when long term foster parents need a break or have an emergency), organizing meal trains, collecting items, and donating to a local foster closet. This past year, St. Jerome joined a Diocesan initiative to partner in prayer with a child in foster care. We continue to remember sweet Henry, 13, regularly in our prayers, in hopes that he will be adopted into a forever home very soon.

HENRY

Lord, grant Henry the forever home that he deserves and strongly desires.

Touch the hearts of his future family and give them courage and peace.

Be Strong and Courageous
Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged,
for the Lord your God
will be with you wherever you go.
—Isaiah 19

Regarding the Dignity of Human Life

Paragraph #2270 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us:

“Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.”

PARISH MANAGER UPDATE: JULY 2022

I want to thank you for your support of our parish and various ministries. Coming out of the pandemic the norms and fluctuations in attendance have challenged our budgeting in planning for cash flows. Summers are typically tight with many projects happening and collections down. I appreciate those who are tithing regularly. Along with the church terrazzo work, we are also in the middle of a $30k investment of several maintenance projects in the Education Building. The goal of this investment is to better serve our youth programs and ensure the longevity of the building. This includes the following:

- Form a Youth Room for middle and high school ministries to meet regularly
- Form a Toddler Atrium for CGS for parents to assist toddlers in beginning to learn about the faith
- Reseal and paint the exterior of the building to protect and restore it from potential deterioration
- Regrade and redo the landscape around the building so that water flows away from the building
- Install LED Lamps throughout the rest of the building to improve engagement in youth and save money over the long term

I pray that the efforts our community makes will create a safe and wholesome space for our ministries to grow in community and encounter Christ for years to come.

Peace in Christ,
Chris McBride

Prayer to Turn Authority into Service

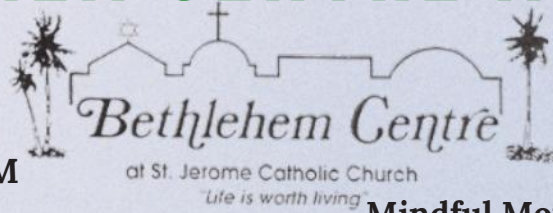

Lord Jesus, let me realize that authority is conferred on us not for ourselves but for others- It is not a privilege but a service. More often than not it consists in a call to suffering and trials. A leader must bear the burdens of others in order to be able to understand them and to walk at their head-as You did.

Help me to understand that no matter what kind of authority we hold, whether as parents and teachers over children, or children over other children, or workers over other workers, it constitutes a share in Your own authority, which is a duty of love and service. Enable us to act on this knowledge and turn our authority into service. Amen.

THE LEGION OF MARY

The object of the Legion of Mary is the Glory of God through the holiness of its members developed by prayer and active cooperation in Mary's and the Church's work. The Legion sees as its priority the spiritual and social welfare of each individual. The members participate in the life of the parish through visitation of families, the sick, both in their homes and nursing facilities, ALFs and through collaboration in the apostolate and missionary works sponsored by the parish. Each Legionary is required to carry out a weekly apostolic work in the spirit of faith and in union with Mary.

We meet weekly in the Ed Kilroy Center on Thursdays at 10:00AM. For more info call Rhea Gasway or Elrita Basak at 727-595-4610.

Donations can be left at the Chapel which is open 24 hours a day or can be brought to the Church on Sundays or to Daily Mass. Bins are located inside the entrances of the Church. As you can see, the need continues to be extremely high. Thank you to all for your continued generosity.

UPDATE FROM BISHOP PARKES

It was great to have my brother visiting this week from Savannah! This photo was taken after we celebrated Mass together in the rectory chapel. I continue to make progress day by day (post amputation surgery), and my recovery is going very well. Thanks for all the prayers and support! #courageouslyliving (Bishop Gregory Parkes with brother Bishop Steven Parkes).

GIFT SHOP: SUMMER CLOSING

The Gift Shop will be closed until Sept 9. Have a great summer!! If questions, please contact Carol Keegan at mammakeegs@yahoo.com

THANK YOU!

We are so thankful for the wonderful volunteers of our Feed the Homeless Ministry. Let us continue striving to be Jesus' hands and feet.

Large Crowds at Mass: For those concerned about attending Sunday Mass with large numbers, the following Masses tend to have fewer people: Saturday: 5:30PM Sunday: 12:30PM and 5:00PM.

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks?

This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.
