10895 HAMLIN BLVD | LARGO, FL 33774
727-595-4610 | WWW.STJEROMEONLINE.ORG

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We join our diocesan family this weekend in promoting Safe Haven Sunday. It affords us the opportunity to raise awareness about the evils of pornography and the grave harm it does to individuals, marriages and families. We will be providing practical resources to help protect individuals and families from online risks (see page 2, www.dosp.org/freedom-from-porn, and visit The Gathering Space). Through the intercession of the Holy Family of Nazareth, may we reject the evils of pornography and embrace the freedom and purity of life in Jesus Christ.

We also welcome Fr. Augustine Mailadiyil, who will be preaching at all Masses as part of our diocese's missionary cooperative program. Fr. Augustine currently serves at Prince of Peace Catholic Church in Sun City Center and will be sharing with us about the needs of his home diocese, the Archdiocese of Imphal, India. Thanks for your generosity in supporting this worthy mission effort.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Blum, Pastor

Safe Haven Sunday: A Prayer

*Loving Father,
Thank you for the gift of marriage and family life. We entrust to you our home, where our marriage and family lives and grows. We ask you to make it a safe haven for all who live and enter these walls. May our home truly be a holy place for both young and old to be formed in the truth regarding life, love, sex, and marriage. May each of our members be protected from and guided in seeking to avoid pornography, while embracing the freedom and purity of life in Christ.*

If there are past wounds that have occurred due to the availability of pornography on our family's devices, lack of awareness of parents, or because of indifference, we ask you to send forth your Spirit to heal, bless, renew, and consecrate this home as a safe haven with your son Jesus Christ at the center of our lives, today, tomorrow, and always. We ask this through the intercession of the Holy Family of Nazareth, Saints Joachim and Anne, the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Amen.

Welcome
HOME
Fr. Blum!

Mission Co-Op 2023: Archdiocese of Imphal

St. Jerome has been paired this year with the mission diocese of Imphal in the State of Manipur in Northeast India. It is home to 34 tribes of Mongolian origin. Ever since first Catholic baptism in 1952, Catholic population has grown up to 101,283 as of now. The diocese has 45 parishes and 8 Mission Centers with 174 priests including 114 indigenous tribal priests.

The growth of the Church has always been accompanied by various challenges and persecutions during the past decades. Between 1990 – 2001, six of our young and dynamic missionaries were killed for witnessing the gospel. Sadly speaking, the State of Manipur witnessed the worst religious persecution against the minority Christians from the majority Hindus (Meities) in May 2023 which was unprecedented in the history of the Church in Manipur. In the sporadic violence that followed accounted for the killing of over 1000 tribal Christians, including women and children. Nearly 50000 fled their villages as most of their homes are either partially or completely burnt down and have taken refuge in nearby military camps and school buildings run by the churches. Several of our churches were vandalized and at least three churches were completely burnt down by violent mobs, causing widespread damages to properties worth millions of dollars.

At present, Mass is conducted in school buildings. It will take several years to rebuild the damaged churches and institutions and also to alleviate the sufferings of the affected tribal communities through massive relief and rehabilitation program. We have confidence in the resilience of our communities and the strength of their faith. We look forward to your participation in our diocesan effort to provide the much needed relief to the suffering people with the help of your generous support and prayers. Fr. Augustine Mailadiyil from the archdiocese will preach at all masses.

"Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love" St. Teresa of Calcutta

Isn't it strange that people used to have to go out of their way to find pornography, but now we have to go out of our way to avoid it? Sexually explicit material is easily available through smart phones, tablets, and pretty much any electronic device that has internet access.

7 Steps to Protect you Family from Pornography www.dosp.org/freedom-from-porn

A recent survey of 14-16 year olds indicated that nearly a third of them had viewed pornography when they were 10 years old or younger (Psychologies Magazine). According to research in the Journal of Adolescent Health, using pornography leads to: beliefs that superior sexual pleasure is attainable without affection towards partners, beliefs that promiscuity is the natural state, and cynical attitudes about love. Despite these challenging times, there is a new explosion of positive and encouraging Catholic resources about love and sexuality that are bringing inspiration and providing "antidotes" to thousands of families! Here are 7 practical tips to protect your family from pornography and help them to experience happy and thriving marriages in the future!

1. Protect all internet devices – computers, cell phones, tablets, eReaders, iPods, MP3 players, video game systems, etc. – with filtering and accountability software like CovenantEyes.com, EverAccountable.com, NetNanny.com and OpenDNS.com. Dads, think back to when you were growing up--can you imagine how tough of a temptation it would be to have a smartphone or iPad in your room? Let's do our children and teens a favor by making sure they keep internet devices in a public area of the house and outside of their room, especially at night. Let's talk to our children and teens regularly about their internet accountability reports and help them turn in internet devices at a certain time each night. It is important to be very cautious about giving children and teens data plans on cell phones.

2. Provide positive "antidotes" with new & inspiring Catholic resources about love and sexuality! Positive and encouraging Catholic websites, CDs and books about love and sexuality have exploded in the last 5-10 years thanks to new teachings about sex and marriage from the Theology of the Body (TOB). Seriously parents, let's all spend time with our teens on a monthly basis or more with TOB resources! Jason and Crystalina Evert, Leah Darrow, Matt Fradd, Sarah Swafford, ChastityProject.com and TOBforTeens.com have life-changing resources for teens and young adults. Christopher West, Mary Shivanandan, and Ron and Kathy Feher have incredible resources for young adults and adults.

3. Monitor all social networks (Facebook, X/Twitter/Threads, Instagram, TikTok, etc.). Be your teen's friend on Facebook, follow them on Twitter, and monitor their email and social network sites. It is important to know all user names and passwords to email, social network sites, and every site that requires a user name and password for your teens. Avoid SnapChat for youth.

4. Educate your teens at age-appropriate times about the damages of pornography. www.dosp.org/freedom-from-porn has helpful information for parents about pornography's effects on the brain, surprising myths about the pornography industry, and research indicating that pornography decreases sexual satisfaction in marriage.

5. Screen movies and secure TVs and satellite radio. USCCB.org/movies & PluggedInOnline.com provide detailed reviews of movies including a written summary of any nudity and sexually-inappropriate content. Block all "adult" or "mature" content on TV, as well as other channels that have inappropriate content. Family-friendly packages are available for satellite radio without pornographic content.

6. Get to know the parents of your children/teen's friends, and encourage them with Theology of the Body and internet safety resources. Many Catholic children have needed counseling after being exposed to pornography at their friend's house. Seriously parents, let's not let our kids go over to their friend's house until we know the internet devices, TVs, etc., are protected – even if they seem to have great Catholic parents.

7. Create a positive and encouraging atmosphere for your family with family dinners, lots of time together, and trips together. Build trust in conversations. Let's encourage our children and teens, and affirm them often! Let's take our families to Mass every Sunday and to Confession often! Many parents have a devotion to St. Joseph and Mary, which is a huge help for protecting our families.
