The Power of Love

Why is it that we are “commanded” to love? Wouldn’t it be better if we were invited to love others? Isn’t it true that no one can make us love another person? And if we love out of duty are we really loving at all?

There have been any number of people in my life that I personally have not liked to be around. Over the years, however, I have discovered that my life is about more than getting along, or obtaining what I want, or experiencing pleasant circumstances.

As a Christian, my life is no longer my own. I have been given the grace to experience the absolute love of God poured out on me in the sacrament of baptism and the only response to that overwhelming and limitless gift of God’s love and grace is to return love for love in as complete a manner as possible. As I put on the Lord Jesus, and I put into action his utter selfless loving here and now, in whatever situation I find myself in, I keep the one command I have been given by Jesus at the Last Supper: “This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.” No, it is not a suggestion, if I feel like it, if it works out, or if it is to my benefit. That is not the way that Jesus loved us and it is not the way he commands us to love one another.

I will love you, even as I wrestle within a relationship, but I may not agree with you.
I will love you, even though I don’t really prefer being around you.
I will love you, even though I will take steps to protect myself from your behaviors.
I will love you because Jesus has loved me and because Jesus loves you.
Love gives meaning to all the other commandments.
Love gives meaning to every suffering.

The power of love alone can give ultimate direction even to the hard realism of economics and politics and social strife and issues of social injustice and disparity. Love alone can break these open so they serve the world in charity.

Just before his death, Jesus talked about love, unity, friendship, glory, and joy, that the love the Father has for Jesus may be in us and that Jesus may be in us. If we focus on love, all else will follow. Love will lead us to unity and glory and joy, as Jesus is in us and we in him so that we may be brought to complete unity. This love is the bedrock of our Christian life. If we miss this we have missed everything. The “command” should make it really stand out to us so that we keep this front and center in our journey to becoming and loving like Christ.

MOTHER’S DAY BABY BOTTLE BOOMERANG – What is it?

Baby Bottle Boomerang is a way for individuals, families, or groups to help support the efforts of Catholic Charities’ Foundations of Life Pregnancy Center in Pinellas County. This ministry provides services to women and families facing an unplanned pregnancy and the responsibilities of parenting.

At all Masses on Mothers’ Day Weekend, May 11th & 12th, Baby bottles will be available for pick up. We invite you to take one and fill it with change, bills, or a check. Bottles can be left that day or at weekend Masses May 18th & 19th.

This is a fantastic opportunity to get the whole family involved in helping Foundations of Life provide services to women and families in need.

For more information call or text 727-401-1195 or Kevin at 813-300-5202. Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and the Life Ministry.

Saint of the Week
St Joseph the Worker (May 1st)

Prayer to St. Joseph for Workers

Joseph, by the work of your hands and the sweat of your brow, you supported Jesus and Mary, and had the Son of God as your fellow worker. Teach me to work as you did, with patience and perseverance, for God and for those whom God has given me to support. Teach me to see in my fellow workers the Christ who desires to be in them, that I may always be charitable and forbearing towards all.

Grant me to look upon work with the eyes of faith, so that I shall recognize in it my share in God’s own creative activity and in Christ’s work of our redemption, and so take pride in it. When it is pleasant and productive, remind me to give thanks to God for it. And when it is burdensome, teach me to offer it to God, in reparation for my sins and the sins of the world.

Prayer from the booklet “Devotions to Saint Joseph” by Brian Moore, S.J., published by the Society of St. Paul

IMPORTANT NEWS COMING SOON!

We are blessed to have a very active parish! This sometimes means we have announcements, from special events to inclement weather updates, that need to be communicated more quickly than through the bulletin. As such, we ask that all parishioners sign up to receive email “e-blasts” via the link on the parish website.

- Visit: www.stjerononline.org
- Scroll down to Parish eBlast (email) System in blue (similar to photo below)
- Click on "Let's Communicate"
- Sign up to receive our digital bulletin delivered to you in an email each week!

RAISE THE ROOF UPDATE

As of February 29th, our roof fund is now sitting at $1,073,100.55. We are blessed to have the Diocese be the financial record keepers of our campaign. We are working hard towards the goal of $1.4 million. Thanks for pledging today so we can quickly complete this much needed project and replace the Church roof.

Great news! Our April Matching Challenge has been met, AND can be doubled in May. An anonymous donor will again match up to $5,000 of roof donations. Can we reach that goal together?!

Another great way to support your parish is to consider naming St. Jerome as the beneficiary of one of your life insurance policies, IRA accounts, or adding as a contingent beneficiary to an existing policy. Beneficiaries can also make Stock or Bond Gifts. For owners of a single IRA account, consider adding St. Jerome as a percentage beneficiary. For complete details, contact Chris McBride at the Parish Office.

For the proper method for naming St. Jerome in your will, please ask your attorney to use the following terminology:
"I give devise, and bequeath (amount, article, stock, etc.) to Gregory Parkes, as Bishop of the Diocese of St. Petersburg, and his successors in office, a Corporation Sole, for the use of St. Jerome Catholic Church, 10895 Hamlin Blvd., Largo, FL 33774."

Faith Formation & Vacation Bible School Registration for 2024-2025

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd / Faith Formation for children including Sacramental Preparation will open April 27th. Families can also register for Vacation Bible School by emailing faithformation@stjeromeonline.org. Please email Stephanie Martin at the above address with any questions or call the Parish Office at 727-595-4610.
