

St. Jerome Catholic Church

As parishioners of St. Jerome and as Catholic disciples of Jesus Christ, we respond to our Lord's invitation to walk with Him in the Sacraments and prayer, to deepen our faith through lifelong formation, to serve those in need, and to invite others to the fullness of the Catholic faith through His Holy Word and His teaching.

Christ Our Hope: In Every Season of Life

September 26, 2019 - Life Justice & Advocacy, News

A Reflection for Respect Life Month 2019

From the time we are knit together in our mothers' wombs until we take our final breaths, each moment of our lives is a gift from God. While every season of life brings its own challenges and trials, each season also gives us new opportunities to grow in our relationship with God.

Today the gift of life is threatened in countless ways. Those who are most vulnerable, rather than receiving the protection they deserve, are all too often seen as a burden and as expendable. As new attacks on human life continue to emerge, we can be tempted to despair, but Christ instead offers us unflinching hope.

Hope is not false optimism or empty positivity. Christian hope is something much more profound and goes to the very depths of our identity as followers of Christ.

Hope is the virtue "by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit" (CCC, 1817).

Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, "God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end" (Spe salvi 31).

Christians know "they have a future: it is not that they know the details of what awaits them, but they know in general terms that their life will not end in emptiness" (SS 2).

For this reason, a woman experiencing a difficult pregnancy can find the strength to welcome her precious child into the world. A man facing a terminal diagnosis can see that the end of his earthly life is only the beginning of eternal life with Christ.

The Church teaches us that "the one who has hope lives differently" (SS 2). Christ's promise of salvation does not mean that we will be spared from suffering. Rather, the promise of salvation ensures that even in the darkest moments of our lives, we will be given the strength to persevere. By virtue of this Christian hope, we can face any challenge or trial. When the seas of life swell and we are battered by the waves, hope allows us to remain anchored in the heart of God. May we hold fast to Christ our hope, from the beginning of life to its very end.

– Reflection by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB)

Living a Holy and Sacramental Life How can I grow in Holiness?

A parish.... Is the place where all the faithful can be gathered together for the Sunday celebration of the Eucharist. The parish initiates the Christian people into the ordinary expression of the liturgical life: it gathers them together in this celebration; it teaches Christ's saving doctrine; it practices the charity of the Lord in good works and brotherly love. (CCC, no. 2179)

Praying the Mass

The Sunday Celebration, Mass, is a celebration we "pray" not simply attend. It is important to consider how we pray the Mass. Throughout the Mass we engage in 3 forms of prayer:

Vocal Prayer

Praying for the forgiveness of our sins (contrition)
Praising God (Gloria)
Thanking God for our deliverance and redemption (Eucharistic Prayer)

Mental Prayer

Word of God (Scripture Readings)
Homily
Reception of Jesus true presence in the Eucharist
(kneeling in humble adoration)

Silent Prayer (Contemplation)

Kneeling in humble adoration we enter the depths of contemplation, where the Word unites us with the Trinity.

Youth ages 10 – 18 are invited to join the new Frassati Expedition Team.

He loved mountain climbing and had a desire to serve those in need. The expectation for this program is for teens to meet monthly to work on physical and spiritual goals. The training will prepare us for some awesome kayaking and hiking expeditions throughout the year. Our ultimate expedition will be training physically and spiritually to attain Heaven! Any teens interested in joining please email youthandfamily@stjeromeonline.org.

All parishioners are invited to a brainstorming session on Saturday, October 12th at 9:45am in the Parish Center/ Kitchen side. We are looking for your input on updating our kitchen. This may be of special interest to our ministries

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is the means by which we welcome and instruct new members of the Church in what it means to be Catholic. We are changing our meeting time to Sunday at the 10:45am Mass. We will leave Mass after the Homily and go to discuss the readings and then have our formational portion of the Journey immediately following. So we will begin to meet once a week as opposed to the twice we currently meet. RCIA is a journey, a personal journey with Christ into his Church. If you have thought of becoming Catholic or would like to deepen your understanding of what it means to be Catholic, join us each Sunday at the 10:45am Mass. For more information contact Deacon Fred Kunder at the office 727-595-4610 or visit our website at: <http://www.stjeromeonline.org/rcia.html>.

“Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit”

Confirmation considered to be the second of the Sacraments of Initiation is often celebrated last in the United States for Catholic who were baptized as children. It is never too late to receive the Grace of this important Sacrament. St. Jerome is offering a preparation program for adults of all ages beginning in October. See the brochure at the Welcome Desk and sign up at the Welcome desk or call the parish office at 727-595-4610.

“Wisdom is seeing with God’s eyes.” – Pope Francis

Scripture and the Tradition of the Catholic Church provide an abundance of wisdom, though it can often be challenging to apply it to our lives. To help you learn to gather and live with greater wisdom, St. Jerome will begin Wisdom: God's Vision for Life on Sunday, October 6th at 7pm. Participants of Wisdom will purchase a journal and will meet on the first Sunday of each month to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. The eight 30-minute videos, presented by Jeff Cavins, will guide you through a variety of themes drawn from the wisdom literature of Scripture. Jeff will explain Scripture's wisdom on decision-making, finances, relationships, peace of mind, and speaking to one another and will look at the beauty of wisdom gained through age and at how Christ himself is the embodiment and fulfillment of all wisdom. To register, call 727-595-4610. To order $20 journal go to <https://ascensionpress.com/collections/wisdom>. FREE childcare available.

EMBRACE: EVANGELIZATION & DISCIPLESHIP

"Go and make disciples of all nations" . . . Matthew 28:19

What are your unique gifts and talents?

You were created by God for His Kingdom; how are you called to serve within that kingdom?

Have you ever volunteered and then felt secretly guilty when it wasn't fun? Ever wonder, what's wrong with me that I dislike doing good works so much? Maybe the problem wasn't you: it was a mismatch between your gifts, your personality traits, and the demands of that ministry.

Come to St. Jerome's next Gifts & Talents Work- shop October 14, 2019, 6:30 to 8:30 PM in the Parish Center to explore gifts, talents and personality traits. Learn about working with those with different strengths and traits, and how to find your "place."

To register or for more info, please email Lori Puterbaugh & Lisa Monk at: drloriputerbaugh@earthlink.net.

HELP- WANTED

Wanted: enthusiastic, energetic evangelizers!

Qualifications: Must be a Catholic who loves the Lord, loves His people and is open to learning and serving Him.
