Matthew 17:5

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

The Scourging at the Pillar

Discosman / The Flagellation of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Willem-Adolph Bouguereau, 1898

All are invited to join us for Stations of the Cross every Friday in Lent!
9:30am in the church, 7pm in the chapel

LENTEN TRADITIONS, LITURGIES AND DEVOTIONS

In the coming weeks of Lent, we will explore the meaning behind some of the Lenten traditions, liturgies and devotions. This weekend we will discuss Stations of the Cross. The Stations of the Cross, also called Way of the Cross or Via Crucis, began as the practice of pious pilgrims to Jerusalem who would retrace the final journey of Jesus Christ to Calvary. Later, for the many who wanted to pass along the same route but could not make the trip to Jerusalem, a practice developed that eventually took the form of the fourteen stations currently found in almost every church. (www.usccb.org) The object of the Stations is to help the faithful to make a spiritual pilgrimage of prayer, through meditating upon the chief scenes of Christ's sufferings and death. It has become one of the most popular devotions for Roman Catholics, and is often performed in a spirit of reparation for the sufferings and insults that Jesus endured during His Passion.

A plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful, who make the pious exercise of the Way of the Cross (Stations of the Cross).

The gaining of the plenary indulgence is regulated by the following norms:

1. The pious exercise must be made before stations of the Way of the Cross legitimately erected.
2. For the erection of the Stations of the Cross fourteen crosses are required, to which it is customary to add fourteen pictures or images, which represent the stations of Jerusalem.
3. According to the more common practice, the pious exercise consists of fourteen pious readings, to which some vocal prayers are added. However, nothing more is required than a pious meditation on the Passion and Death of the Lord, which need not be a particular consideration of the individual mysteries of the stations.
4. A movement from one station to the next is required.

But if the pious exercise is made publicly and if it is not possible for all taking part to go in an orderly way from station to station, it suffices if at least the one conducting the exercise goes from station to station, the others remaining in their place.

Those who are "impeded" can gain the same indulgence, if they spend at least one half an hour in pious reading and meditation on the Passion and Death of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Question & Mission of the Week:

Question: How can I listen to Jesus over the next week? What is He telling me?

Mission: Spend some time this Lent in active discernment of God's will for you. Consider a period of retreat, spiritual direction, or journal writing to enhance your ability to hear God's summons.

Save the Date!

Sunday, March 15th
thru Tuesday,
March 17th

GUS LLOYD
CATHOLIC Apologetics

Mark your calendars for Sunday, March 15th through Tuesday, March 17th for our Parish Lenten Mission. The mission will be hosted by national radio host, author and speaker, Gus Lloyd, host of Seize the Day on Sirius XM's The Catholic Channel. The theme of the mission is "Loving, Learning and Living Your Faith". Each evening begins at 7pm. Don't miss this opportunity to grow in your faith. Be sure to invite your family and friends!

St. Jerome Catholic Church Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

faithformation@st.jeromeonline.org

Families have a choice of seven Mass times to attend: Saturday, 4pm & 5:30pm or Sunday, 7:30am, 9am, 10:45am, 12:30pm and 5pm. Remember to attend a Mass to fulfill your Sunday obligation.

Lent for Children

During the season of Lent, the younger children will explore the Last Supper. They will also come to know the names of sacred sites in the City of Jerusalem. The older child revisits the work of the Cenacle, but will also have an opportunity to read the paschal narratives.

Prepare as a family –

Talk about the importance of tradition for passing on what is important in your lives and make connections to the Last Supper

- What tradition did Jesus give us at the Last Supper?
- What did He say? (Note: Do not make the connection between the Last Supper and the Liturgy, it is important for the child to make that discovery for him or herself).

Note: In the Atrium, we always talk about the events of Jesus' death in conjunction with the events of Jesus' Rising. It is crucial not to separate the two. Sofia Cavalletti explains in Religious Potential of the Child: "Death is a common event; many men have had the courage to face death for love of their brothers. What is absolutely new is that, in Jesus, death is followed by renewed and eternal life.... To us it seems appropriate to avoid long accounts of the passion, in order to balance the length of the passion narration with the account of the resurrection."

The Knights of Columbus Council 17942

The Divine Mercy of Jesus

St. Jerome Parish, Largo

Thank you for your past support!

We now ask for your continued support as we strive to save lives through helping purchase an ultrasound machine.

We recently learned that our Brother Fr. Lopez’s Knights of Columbus Council 5737 in Pinellas Park has taken up the challenge of raising $15,000 to help buy an ultrasound machine for the Bay Area Pregnancy Center. The total cost of this device is $30,000. This needed ultrasound will show pregnant women their fetus alive and well in the womb, hoping this knowledge and some prayers might change their mind about having an abortion. In our district we have neighboring KoC Councils: Fr. Lopez, Holy Cross, and Blessed Sacrament, all of whom have agreed to raise half of the $15,000 goal.

At this time our only source of generating profit is from the proceeds from our once-a-month breakfasts after the first three Masses. All donations collected will be applied to this goal. We are very proud of how our community fellowship breakfasts have grown and are thankful for your attendance and support.

Your KoC Council 17249 has scheduled three more breakfasts, including March 1, 2020. Our last breakfast, until we return in the fall, will be May 3, 2020, in honor of Mother’s Day. You can see from the thermometer, $5,000 has been raised.

Please remember: when you drop money in the donation basket, your sacrifice and contribution helps save precious lives.

Devotion to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist

ST. MAXIMILIAN KOLBE SAID:

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION IS THE GREATEST POWER IN THE UNIVERSE, CAPABLE OF TRANSFORMING US AND CHANGING THE FACE OF THE WORLD.

Please join St. Jerome's Lenten Eucharistic Exposition: March 26, 27 and 28. Schedule and sign-up sheets will be available in March.

Ready Reasons

Was Jesus' Sacrifice Enough?

The Catholic teaching on penance is often rejected because they think it implies Jesus' death on the cross was not enough. Learn why that is not actually the case.
