PASTOR'S COLUMN

Fr. Tom Morgan

1/9/22

Dear Friends:

We celebrate the Baptism of the Lord this weekend and we are over a week into the new calendar year. When I reflect on the person of John the Baptist I always think of John 3:30, where John speak of Jesus that, "He must increase; I must decrease." I would like to suggest your prayerful consideration for 2022, "The Spiritual Path of the Catholic Disciple," included below. We pray indeed that the life of Jesus may increase in each of us throughout this new year.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

The Spiritual Path of the Catholic Disciple:

- 1) Follow the example of Mary (the sister of Martha and Lazarus) in Luke 10:49, "Mary [who] sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak."
- 2) Look for Jesus where He makes Himself present and be obedient to John 12:26, "...where I am, there also will my servant be."
- 3) Seek to meet Jesus at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, in the Sacraments, in His Holy Word through prayer and meditation, through prayer, and through service toward "the least" of our brothers and sisters.
- 4) Be obedient to the Heavenly Father when He directs us regarding His Son to, "...listen to him." Matthew 17:5, and allow the Holy Spirit to, "...guide you to all truth." John 16:13
- 5) Follow the example of Mary the Mother of God, and whatever truth that Jesus gives us let us continue, "...reflecting on them in [our] heart." Luke 2:19
- 6) Respond to that which Jesus speaks to your heart, soul, and mind and "...open the door..." to Jesus Revelation 3:20 and take to heart the words of His Mother Mary, "Do whatever He tells you." John 2:5
- 7) As we continue down the path of discipleship remember what #2567 in the "Catechism of the Catholic Church" teaches, "God calls man first. man may forget his Creator or hide far from his face; he may run after idols or accuse the deity of having abandoned him, yet the living and true God tirelessly calls each person to that mysterious encounter known as prayer. In prayer, the faithful God's initiative of love always comes first; our own first step is always a response. As God gradually reveals himself and reveals man to himself, prayer appears as a reciprocal call, a covenant drama. Through words and actions, this drama engages the heart."
- 8) Remember and look always for God's "first step."

QUESTION: How has the Holy Spirit, whom I received in baptism, influenced my outlook and my actions?

MISSION: Try to live out the rest of this week with that awareness in the back of your mind: you are the beloved of God, chosen and favored.

Inviting Catholics Home

Here at St Jerome parish, we are passionate about Inviting Catholics home. For those who have not been attending Mass regularly or who are not participating in the Sacramental life of the Church, please know there is a home for you here. Inviting Catholics Home is a relaxed forum in which to discuss your concerns, what may have caused you to leave, and what is calling you back. Call St Jerome office 727-595-4610

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS: ANAMNESIS

37. By doing what Jesus has done the Church makes living memory of Christ's saving deeds. The fullness and power of the paschal mystery continue to be present as an on-going reality when the Church celebrates the Eucharist. Since the Eucharist is also the pledge of future glory, Christ's coming at the end of time is also anticipated.

*Priest Schedule subject to change.
If there is a Mass intention error please contact the Receptionist in the Parish Office at (727) 595-4610.

*All good giving and every perfect gift is from above.
James 1:17*

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is more than being a good manager of one's time, talents, and treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires: to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thanks for sharing His gifts!

Human Trafficking Awareness Day: National Blue Campaign Day

You are invited to stay after the 9:00 A.M. Mass THIS Tuesday, January 11, 2022 for the videos on Human Trafficking Awareness which will be shown in the church.

These free videos, from the Department of Homeland Security and Polaris, will take less than an hour. They will give you information on, "what human trafficking really is, how it happens, and how you can be part of the solution." (Polaris, Human Trafficking 101) Make yourself aware of this modern day slavery, that is particularly prevalent in the Tampa Bay area. Don't forget to wear blue!

The Divine Mercy of Jesus Knights of Columbus

Council 17249 meets on the first and second Wednesdays of each month in the Parish Center. At the first Wednesday meeting we have a 30 minute officer's meeting. Then after, we meet with all interested parties to share our faith journey, pray, and learn how to increase the signs of the Holy Spirit's presence within us.

On the second Wednesday of the month, we hold a regular business meeting and learn what the various needs of our parish and community are in order to fulfill Jesus' commands: "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Join us for breakfast on the third Sunday of each month.

MINISTRIES IN ACTION

DIOCESE OF ST. PETERSBURG | CATHOLIC MINISTRY Appeal

TIME to START OVER

Last year, Bishop Parkes, diocesan leadership and a task force of experienced pastors studied how our parishes work together to support our local Church. For more than 20 years, the Annual Pastoral Appeal (APA), had supported all parts of our diocesan budget: administrative, business, leadership as well as ministry, programs and outreach. Parishes worked to reach their goal, sometimes all year. But if not met, the balance was paid by the parish. The Appeal Task Force recognized how difficult this was for parishes. They also discerned that our people wanted to support the good work of our Catholic Church.

After much prayer, consultation and review, the task force voted unanimously to retire APA, and start over, separating how different areas would be funded. Their innovative plan calls for the leadership of our local Church to be supported by a much smaller assessment of 2%, and the administrative functions such as accounting and human resources to be funded through interest earnings on a responsibly invested trust.

And finally, it invites our parishioners to participate in the new Catholic Ministry Appeal each year to fund what most consider to be the traditional ministries and programs of our diocese.

HOW is THE CATHOLIC MINISTRY APPEAL DIFFERENT?

- + Each parish will have a goal for the new appeal, but it does not have to be paid by the parish if not achieved.
- + Because leadership and administrative costs are not included in this appeal, 100% of donations are going to outreach that positively affects people, communities, parishes and schools.
- + If we exceed our $7.1 million goal, ministries such as seminarian support, Worship, the permanent Diaconate program, campus ministry efforts, discipleship formation and vocations can grow.

St. Jerome concludes an important survey this weekend. The survey was inserted in the Parish Bulletin last week and is also available on-line for download. Please be sure to take a bulletin next week or go to St. Jerome's website if you will be away. Response deadline is January 9, 2022.

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks?
This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.

Alpha only works when the Holy Spirit shows up. With the spirit of Christmas, we will be starting 21 days of prayer based on the cards to the left. You can offer your prayers for those you wish to be touched by the program and you can ask your friends to join us in our next session in January. Cards are available in the Gathering Space.
