PASTOR'S COLUMN

Fr. Tom Morgan

April 24, 2022

Dear Friends:

Jesus told St. Faustina that this feast of Mercy would be a very special day when all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened (Diary 699). The Feast of Divine Mercy is celebrated on the Sunday following Easter and is now called Divine Mercy Sunday.

Our Lord made as great promise: "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." (Diary 699). He went on to say, "I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy." (Diary 1109). The Church allows for one to go to Confession for up to about 20 days, before or after Divine Mercy Sunday.

We will celebrate Divine Mercy at all of our Sunday Masses this weekend, and our "Divine Mercy Holy Hour" will take place on Sunday at 3:00pm, April 24th.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

CONGRATULATIONS!

Many congratulations to Msgr. David Greka, who is celebrating 60 years of priestly ministry. Thank you for your service to the people of God!

Many thanks to our music ministers who led us in beautiful worship this Holy Week and Easter!

QUESTION: What wounds in my community can I help make whole? How will I do this?

MISSION: Support the faith of those around you. Speak with your children, grandchildren parents, friends, neighbors about what you believe. Pray together; pray for others. Respect the faith of those whose beliefs are different from ours.

Understanding the Mass: Silent Prayer/Song of Praise

52. Although a hymn of praise or a psalm may be sung by the entire congregation after the communion, adequate time for deep and silent prayer should not be rare. Such silence is important to the total rhythm of the celebration.

NEXT SUNDAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

1st Reading: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41

Responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12, 13

2nd Reading:

Revelation 5:11-14

Gospel: John 21:1-19

Jesus, I trust in You.

Devotion to Jesus, the Divine Mercy

"As I have loved you so also should you love one another." (John 13:34)

The Image of the pierced side of Christ pouring out blood and water reminds us that the Cross, love in action, is the price of mercy.

The message is as simple as ABC:

A — Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world. "Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us" (Matt 6:12)

B — Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others as He does to us. "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you" (Matt 7:2)

C — Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive. "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy" (Matt 5:7)

Join Us for Breakfast!

Lifeline Needs Your Generosity

Last week, Lifeline served 81 families comprised of 298 people. The Holy Week Food Drive was very successful with parishioners donating 373 bags of food for a total of 561 bags so far this month.

The recent record numbers of people coming for assistance have seriously depleted our food supply. As food prices continue to increase and supply chains are strained, we are continually in need of the non-perishable items listed here. We thank all for your continued generosity.

- Boxed macaroni & cheese
- Boxed mashed potatoes
- Beef stew
- Hearty canned soups
- Canned pork & beans
- Peanut butter
- Jellies & jams

- Canned vegetables (corn, beans, carrots)
- Canned tuna/ chicken/turkey
- Pasta/spaghetti
- Pasta sauce
- Canned fruit
- Rice (2 lb bags)
- Cereal

Donations can be left at the Chapel which is open 24 hours a day or can be brought to the Church on Sundays or at Daily Mass. Bins are located inside the entrances of the Church. The need continues to be incredibly high. We thank all for your continued kindness!!

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks?

This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.
