PASTOR'S COLUMN
FR. TOM MORGAN

July 10, 2022

This week, Fr. Tom invites us to reflect on

Best of the Catechism
on Family:

"Thus the home is the first school of Christian life and "a school for human enrichment." Here one learns endurance and the joy of work, fraternal love, generous - even repeated - forgiveness, and above all divine worship in prayer and the offering of one's life. It is here that the father of the family, the mother, children, and all members of the family exercise the priesthood of the baptized in a privileged way "by the reception of the sacraments, prayer and thanksgiving, the witness of a holy life, and self-denial and active charity." CCC #1657

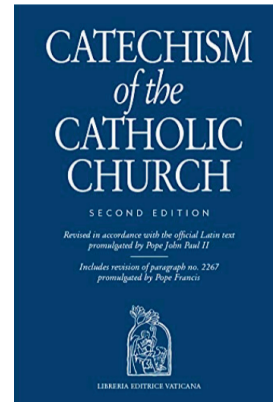

"A man and a woman united in marriage, together with their children, form a family. This institution is prior to any recognition by public authority, which has an obligation to recognize it. It should be considered the normal reference point by which the different forms of family relationship are to be evaluated." CCC #2202

"The Christian family is a communion of persons, a sign and image of the communion of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit. In the procreation and education of children it reflects the Father's work of creation. It is called to partake of the prayer and sacrifice of Christ. Daily prayer and the reading of the Word of God strengthen it in charity. The Christian family has an evangelizing and missionary task." CCC #2205

"The family should live in such a way that its members learn to care and take responsibility for the young, the old, the sick, the handicapped, and the poor." CCC #2208

"Parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children. They bear witness to this responsibility first by creating a home where tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity, and disinterested service are the rule. The home is well suited for education in the virtues. This requires an apprenticeship in self-denial, sound judgment, and self-mastery - the preconditions of all true freedom. Parents should teach their children to subordinate the 'material and instinctual dimensions to interior and spiritual ones.' Parents have a grave responsibility to give good example to their children. By knowing how to acknowledge their own failings to their children, parents will be better able to guide and correct them..." CCC #2223

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

QUESTION: How do I rationalize passing by someone in need? What will spur me to stop and help instead?

MISSION: Let there be no more “enemies of God” in your heart. Practice thinking differently about the types of people you regard as reflexively bad. Avoid slander, sarcasm, and stereotyping of groups. Begin to see in every person a beloved child of the same God.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT: ROSARY GROUP

We welcome everyone to pray the Rosary on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Wednesdays in the Holy Family Chapel following the 9:00am Mass. We have become a close group and occasionally meet for breakfast together after the Rosary. According to St. Louis Marie de Montfort, "one who says his Rosary alone only gains the merit of that one Rosary. But if he says it together with others, he gains the merit of each Rosary." If questions please call either Virginia Esquinaldo 727-393-6063 or Mary Pat Hourican 727-517-4289.

Requiem eternam dona ei.

Eternal rest grant unto Fr. Carl Melchior, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen.

We are saddened to report the passing of Fr. Carl Melchior, priest of the Diocese of St. Petersburg. Fr. Carl unexpectedly passed from a heart attack on June 30 in the Philadelphia airport, on his way to join Bishop David Toups for a pilgrimage in Greece.

Fr. Carl served our diocese for many years in a variety of ways, including parochial vicar of St. Catherine of Siena in Largo, Vocations Director, and most recently as both the Episcopal Secretary to Bishop Parkes and Chaplain at St. Petersburg Catholic High School.

Please keep Father Melchior's family and loved ones in your kind thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Simply go to www.stjeromeonline.org and click on the home page link under "New Bulletin Submission Procedure" and complete the Google form. STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is more than being a good manager of one's time, talents, and treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires: to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thank you for sharing His gifts!

MAINTENANCE: TERRAZZO UPDATES

We have received a sample from Exclusive Surfaces. Although the design is exceptional, we have asked the company for a few darker samples as the one we received is too bright in comparison to our current floor. We hope one of the newer samples will suffice so we can move forward with the project and it may be completed over the summer. The professionalism and responsiveness of Exclusive Surfaces has been most impressive. They are very concerned with helping our parish community replace our damaged red terrazzo with a new red terrazzo that will last a lifetime as it should have in the first place.

RAISE THE ROOF CAMPAIGN

Donated funds go toward replacing the present church roof with a new roof system. While the Diocese is managing this campaign, we have been given permission to provide this payment convenience to our Online Giving parishioners. Funds are forwarded to the Diocese for reporting purposes.

Every Human Life is Sacred: Local Resources for Crisis Pregnancies

Our parish and diocese is committed to helping the most vulnerable and in need at all stages. In light of the recent Supreme Court decision, we'd like to highlight this month some of the resources available to those in need with an unexpected or difficult pregnancy. In addition, our clergy would be happy to assist you with spiritual counsel, and our parish staff are happy to help connect you to the following.

Catholic Charities

Catholic Charities of the Diocese of St. Petersburg operates various ministries to serve expectant mothers who face difficult pregnancies and those who find it difficult to care for their children after they are born. Services continue long after babies are born and include comprehensive referral services to those in need. Catholic Charities has also operated a licensed, private adoption agency to assist women with adoption planning since 1945. <https://www.ccdosp.org>

"Catholic Charities provides an enormous array of services, such as financial assistance, utility assistance, medical services, shelters and housing, and pregnancy and adoption services. All our services are free and available to everyone. We serve all residents in Citrus, Hernando Hillsborough, Pasco, and Pinellas counties regardless of race, creed, gender, national origin, disability status or socioeconomic status," said Laura Ramos, Pregnancy & Adoption Services Director Catholic Charities Diocese of St. Petersburg.

Foundations of Life Pregnancy Center has always been prepared to serve our community. For us it is not just about saving the baby. This is about setting up parents for long-term success in their parenting," said Ramos. "What we want is not only to give hope to those who are thinking about abortion, but we want to walk with all moms through their pregnancy and until they have achieved their spiritual, economic, and physical goals.*

Another rapidly growing initiative locally is Walking with Moms in Need, sponsored by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. This parish-based process helps parishioners connect with local mothers facing difficult or challenging pregnancies, identifying local resources and filling the gaps so that pregnant and parenting women receive the material, spiritual, and emotional support they need.

Foundations of Life Pregnancy Centers

Offers support and services to women who are facing unplanned pregnancy with the goal of having them choose life. They offer free, confidential, and nonjudgmental support to women of all ages. There are five Pregnancy Centers located in Tampa, St. Petersburg, Spring Hill and Dade City. Call for appointments and walk-ins are welcomed. www.foundationsoflife.org

Project Rachel

The Church continues to serve women and men who have been involved in an abortion and then find themselves in emotional and spiritual turmoil. Project Rachel Ministry offers confidential, compassionate help to women and men after an abortion. If you or someone you know is suffering after abortion, confidential, non-judgmental help is available from Project Rachel Ministry. Anyone looking for help can call the confidential helpline 407-222-8584. Email: projectrachel@cflcc.com

Catholic Charities Adoption Services

Licensed, private Florida adoption agency that has been assisting women with adoption planning since 1964. Their experienced adoption counselors are ready to assist you during and after your pregnancy. You are provided confidential, non-judgmental support and counseling. The Adoption Services serve 64 counties throughout Florida. www.ccadoptfl.org

Regarding the Dignity of Human Life

Paragraph #2270 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us:

"Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life."

THE LEGION OF MARY

The object of the Legion of Mary is the Glory of God through the holiness of its members developed by prayer and active cooperation in Mary's and the Church's work. The Legion sees as its priority the spiritual and social welfare of each individual. The members participate in the life of the parish through visitation of families, the sick, both in their homes and nursing facilities, ALFs and through collaboration in the apostolate and missionary works sponsored by the parish. Each Legionary is required to carry out a weekly apostolic work in the spirit of faith and in union with Mary.

We meet weekly in the Ed Kilroy Center on Thursdays at 10:00AM. For more info call Rhea Gasway or Elrita Basak at 727-595-4610.

LIFELINE MINISTRIES

Last week Lifeline was again very busy. We served 101 families comprised of 365 people. Parishioners donated 60 bags of food totaling 557 bags for the month of June. In June, we served a record breaking 491 families comprised of 1,740 people. So far in July, parishioners have donated 82 bags of food.

The recent record number of people coming for assistance continues to deplete our food supply and we are always in need of the non—perishable food items listed below. Donations can be left at the Chapel which is open 24 hours a day or can be brought to the Church on Sundays or to Daily Mass. Bins are located inside the entrances of the Church. As you can see, the need continues to be extremely high. Thank you to all for your continued generosity.

We invite you to consider becoming a "Sunday Prayer Time Apostle" and pray with us weekly for those who have shared prayer requests. Sunday Prayer Time Apostles join us each Sunday by praying for the weekly prayer requests which can be found on our parish web page at: <https://www.stjeromeonline.org> or on our parish Facebook page: www.facebook.com/StJeromeLargo

Should Communion Ministers Still Wear Face Masks?

This question is asked regularly: Do Communion ministers need to wear face masks? The protocols issued by Bishop Parkes on June 15, 2020, are (for the most part) still in effect, including, it is strongly recommended for the safety of the minister and the communicant that the minister wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion. We now know the coronavirus is transmitted primarily by breathing it in via airborne aerosol particulates. We also know that breakthrough cases of Covid can occur even to those who are fully vaccinated. So for the safety of all, Communion ministers are still strongly encouraged to wear a face mask when distributing Holy Communion.
