PASTOR'S COLUMN
FR. TOM MORGAN

September 18, 2022
Dear Friends,

Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. We celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 18, 2022, and the theme is: "This is my body given for you." We will commission those serving as catechists at our 9:00 AM Sunday Mass. Please pray for those in our parish serving as our catechists. In addition, let us pray for parents as they are the "first teachers" of their children in the ways of faith. Let us also recognize the call that each of us has to respond to Jesus' words in Mark, 16:15, "Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature." How are you being faithful to Jesus' invitation?

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom Morgan

Catechism Corner

"Every institution is inspired, at least implicitly, by a vision of man and his destiny, from which it derives the point of reference for its judgment, its hierarchy of values, its line of conduct. Most societies have formed their institutions in the recognition of a certain preeminence of man over things. Only the divinely revealed religion has clearly recognized man's origin and destiny in God, the Creator and Redeemer. The Church invites political authorities to measure their judgments and decisions against this inspired truth about God and man.

Societies not recognizing this vision or rejecting it in the name of their independence from God are brought to seek their criteria and goal in themselves or to borrow them from some ideology. Since they do not admit that one can defend an objective criterion of good and evil, they arrogate to themselves an explicit or implicit totalitarian power over man and his destiny, as history shows." Catechism 2244

QUESTION: How can I be a prudent steward of the wealth God has blessed me with? Where do I regard my "true wealth" (Luke 16:11)?

MISSION: Make a commitment to pray for those who have authority over you. Ask for the prayers of those who are under your authority, especially children, who are eager pray-ers.

Stewardship is more than being a good manager of one's time, talents, and treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires: to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thank you for sharing His gifts!
