WELCOME OUR NEW STAFF MEMBERS!

Warmest greetings and many blessings to you all! My name is Ms. Taylor Gunn, and I am the new Director of Youth Ministries here at St. Jerome Parish! I grew up in Palm Harbor, attending St. Ignatius of Antioch Church in Tarpon Springs, and I also attended FSU in Tallahassee. I have been working with Life Teen in different capacities for over fifteen years, and I am overjoyed to begin this new position! Know of my prayers for this parish daily and for the teens to grow more in love with Christ each day. May God bless you in His Mercy!

Since we have wrapped up the 2022-2023 Life Teen calendar, we will be planning for the new 2023-2024 Life Teen calendar in the coming months. I am so excited to get to know all our wonderful teens and I am looking forward to the summer camps happening this year also! May God bless you in His Mercy!

Pray for Taylor Gunn, our new Youth Minister!

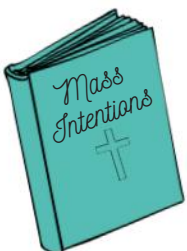

welcome

Seven years ago, my son and daughter-in-law asked me to attend Mass with them at a different church from the one I regularly attended. That day, the homily spoke to my heart and the music touched my soul. I found the congregation to be warm and welcoming and knew immediately that St. Jerome Catholic Church needed to be my church home. Within two weeks, I registered as a Parishioner and joined the choir. Shortly afterwards, I began to cantor and lector at different Masses. When we began Masses again after Covid, for a short period of time, I also served as sacristan for one of the Daily Masses and as altar server at another. Although originally from Washington, DC, for the last nine years my wonderful husband Tom and I have resided in Clearwater Beach. I have two amazing children, daughter Yessenia and son Matthew, a fabulous daughter-in-law Nicole. God has blessed me with two beautiful grandchildren, Jaxon and Josselyn, whom I adore.

I am honored and grateful to have joined the office staff at St. Jerome as the new Receptionist and look forward to the opportunity of serving my church family in this new role.

Pray for Sylvia Cummings, our new Receptionist!

The 2024 Mass Intentions Book will be open on Wednesday, June 28th at 9:30AM. Masses can be requested by coming into the Parish Office. There is a limit of 6 Masses for one week, then the book will be open without limits.

Stewardship

Stewardship is more than being a good manager of one's time, talents, and treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires: to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thanks for sharing His gifts!

Current balance is 937,991.85 as of May 31, 2023.

Where there's a will...

Consider naming St. Jerome as the beneficiary of one of your life insurance policies, IRA accounts, or adding as a contingent beneficiary to an existing policy. Beneficiaries can also make Stock or Bond Gifts. For owners of a single IRA account, consider adding St. Jerome as a percentage beneficiary. For complete details, contact Chris McBride at the Parish Office. The following is the proper method for naming St. Jerome in your will. Please ask your attorney to use the following verbiage:

"I give, devise, and bequeath (amount, article, stock, etc.) to Gregory Parkes, as Bishop of the Diocese of St. Petersburg, and his successors in office, a Corporation Sole, for the use of St. Jerome Catholic Church, 10895 Hamlin Blvd., Largo, FL 33774."

CHURCH BUILDING CLOSURE FOR REPAIRS

Our Church building closed starting Monday, May 1st until late July-early August for repairs & cleaning to be made to the red terrazzo floor which is severely damaged in the Church and the Gathering Space. During this time, daily Mass will be in the Holy Family Chapel and our weekend Masses will be in the Parish Center. We apologize for the inconvenience that this will cause. Coffee & Donuts will be moved into the Education Building during this time. Thanks for your patience and understanding as we complete these needed repairs! They are moving along well.

Parents: Your Children Are Invited

I didn't realize how easy it would be to feel like I didn't belong in church as a mother with small children.

There was a season when managing the boys in church was particularly exasperating. I was pretty consistently concerned about what other people thought of us (disapproving looks when they can't sit still and being told multiple times where the crying room was when we were taking our seats with our children (who were not crying) didn't help).

On one particular day, exasperated as usual managing the boys, I heard the Lord's encouragement deep in my soul as I sat there... "Look around you. Do you see all of these people? They are my children. I love them.

"But they didn't invite you to their house. I invited you to mine."

I haven't been the same since. I was truly set free as a mother. I was invited by the Father to step into the freedom of remembering my sons' belonging in the church. I have seized the truth with confidence that the Lord doesn't invite my sons into His house and expect them not to come as they are (Matthew 19:14).

Do I remove them when they are a true disturbance? Absolutely. Do we try in every moment to teach them reverence and respect in every way possible for their little hearts? Absolutely.

But no disapproving look, no amount of sweating through my dress, no subconscious feeling that I should be ashamed for my sons wiggling will shake me from the knowledge of whose house I'm in when I'm in church with my sons ever again.

The Father's house.
