UPDATES FROM THE PARISH MANAGER

July 9, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our church floor renovation is more than halfway completed. Over the past couple of weeks, Exclusive Surfaces has been working on casting the front steps at their warehouse in Miami. While this takes extra time, it ensures that the steps will cure properly without dripping. Once Exclusive Surfaces installs the casting on the front of the steps this week, they will be able to pour the top of each step. After they complete the steps, they will cleanup the floors and then polish them. They expect to complete the job by July 22nd. We will need 2-3 weeks to thoroughly clean the church, organ, and piano since there is far more dust than we expected. This means that we expect to return to the church by the weekend of August 12-13, if not earlier.

Our parish manager,
Chris McBride.

We thank you for your patience during this time and we look forward to returning to the church soon with a pristine and safe floor!"

Peace in Christ,
Chris McBride

Saint of the Week

Tuesday we celebrate the Memorial of St. Benedict of Nursia, Italy. A saint along with his twin sister, Scholastica, a key part of Benedict's Rule of Life was "Ora et labora", which means to seek a balance in life through "prayer and work." Let today be a reminder to trust in the work of God.

The Word in Our Lives by Tom Schmidt of Diocesan

Jesus tells us in today's Gospel that he is "meek and humble of heart." Yet just a few lines before this, he says that he is equal to his Father, the almighty God. So how can the Son of God be both meek and mighty?

Jesus' meekness meant doing the will of God completely. The challenge for us comes in his words "learn from me." We must learn to do God's will as completely as Jesus did.

First, to be complete means that we do all that God wants from us. We cannot pick and choose what we want to do and what we want to ignore. For example, we may reserve the right to decide which teachings of the Church we will follow. But doing God's will completely means doing it without reservation.

Second, we may try to do all that God asks, but give up if something becomes too difficult. We may say we forgive someone, for example, but when they reject that forgiveness, we become even angrier. We can learn from Jesus how to do each part of God's will to completion, as Jesus did all the way to the cross.
