Dear friends,

Being Catholic in the workplace is a gift but can also present challenges. Nevertheless, it offers us a chance to present Christ's love to those we work with and for. Below are some suggestions on how to infuse our faith in the workplace:

1. Pray on your way to work and/or before your shift. Pray for your coworkers, bosses, and customers. Pray for their needs. You can find out their needs by having a listening ear and showing compassion.
2. Smile, be open to a conversation, and listen. By doing so people will know that you care for them and value them as a person. If we treat others as Jesus values us, then people will encounter Christ's love through us.
3. Pray throughout the day. It can be as simple as praying a Hail Mary or spontaneous such as "Father, I am not feeling 100% today. I offer my best and ask that you help lift me up through the day."
4. Be open to religious conversations. If the conversation is a friendly and curious dialogue about religion, then it will bear fruit. If it is crude and demeaning about religion, then it is best to walk away because the other person is not open.

I'd like to share with you a prayer that has been a tremendous grace to me and I hope it is a grace to others as we try to keep our eyes fixed on Christ in everything we do...

My heavenly Father, as I enter this workplace, I bring your presence with me. I thank you for the gifts you have blessed me with. I commit to using them responsibly in your honor. Give me a fresh supply of strength to do my job. Anoint my projects, ideas, and energy, so that even my smallest accomplishment may bring you glory. Lord, when I am confused, guide me. When I am weary, energize me. When I am burned out, infuse me with the light of the Holy Spirit. May the work that I do and the way I do it bring faith, joy, and a smile to all that I encounter today. And oh Lord, when I leave this place, please give me traveling mercies. Lord, I thank you for everything you've done, everything you're doing, and everything you're going to do. In the name of Jesus I pray, with much love and thanksgiving. Amen.

Peace in Christ,
Chris McBride

Stewardship is more than being a good manager of one's time, talents, and treasure. The discipline of biblical stewardship calls us to use all these gifts in the way the Lord desires: to employ them not for us, but for His glory. Thanks for sharing His gifts!

21 Days of Prayer Campaign

There are many challenges facing our nation, community and church. Join us as we plant seeds of faith among spouses, adult children, grandchildren, friends and neighbors.

Fill out a prayer card with the names of three people you would like to see explore faith and a relationship with Jesus Christ. The Come Holy Spirit portion is to be placed on the altar as the parish prays for them. The remainder is for you.

As Jesus says in Luke 11:02, "When you pray, say: "Father, hallowed be your name, your Kingdom come." Set an alarm for 11:02 to remind you to pray daily for those on your heart.

Then INVITE them to come with you to Alpha as a "Taste and See" starting Tuesday, September 5th.

21 DAY

-St. John Vianney

The patron saint of parish priests, we celebrate the life of St. John Vianney on August 4th. St. Vianney is known for his intentional availability in the confessional. INDIAN SHORES POLICE DEPARTMENT
"Protect with Honor, Serve with Pride"

The Word in Our Lives: Reading Reflections by Tom Schmidt of Diocesan

The ending of today's Gospel speaks about "the new and the old." Jesus is saying that a person "instructed in the kingdom" has wisdom both old and new; in other words, that person learns from the past as well as from the present. Let's look at each of those.

We learn from the past by studying it. So the wisdom of the kingdom comes first from the scriptures. The more familiar we are with the word of God, the more wisdom we possess.

We can also learn from the lives of the saints and writings of the Church. If you only have time to go to Mass on Sunday, just listening to the homily can help to apply the scriptures to your life.

One way we can learn from "the new" is to learn from our mistakes. That includes learning from our sins. When we are truly sorry, we make an effort to change our ways. We can also learn from the mistakes and the successes of our friends. As we share our faith with them, we share the stories of our lives, both good and bad. God can speak to us through a friend or relative whose advice we seek. A truly wise person is one who has received a lifetime of good advice.
