Dear St. Jerome Family,

I write this message to express my deepest gratitude and affection as I prepare to embark on a new chapter in my life. It is with sadness and excitement that I bid farewell to the beloved community of St. Jerome Catholic Church.

As I reflect upon my time here, I cannot help but be overwhelmed by the countless blessings and graces that God has bestowed upon me. Throughout the years your prayers have been a source of immense strength and support. The knowledge that I was lifted up in prayer by this community has sustained me through both the joys and challenges of my ministry.

As I move forward, please know that you will remain in my prayers and I humbly ask for your prayers as well.

Reflection on the Trinity: Getting to Know the Trinity by Tom Schmidt

As difficult as it is to understand the Holy Trinity, I am amazed that Jesus even bothered to tell us about the Father, the Spirit, and himself. As if his own life, his teachings about God's love, his miracles, his death and resurrection were not enough, he told us something about God that we never would have imagined: There are three Persons in one God. It is also something we cannot completely comprehend. So instead of trying to explain it, let's look at what it means for us believers.

One thing it shows is that God wants to be known by us. Since theologians and spiritual writers have been helping us do that for almost two thousand years, it may not seem like a big deal. But in ancient times, people expected their gods to be mysterious and hidden. Many cultures thought that you could control a spirit or god if you knew its name. So knowing anything about the inner life of a god would be huge. But our God is the only God, whom no one can control. God sees us not as a threat but as beloved children. Just as a couple falling in love wants to know everything about each other, so God wants to be known by those whom God loves. That leads to my second point.

The Trinity also shows us that "God is love" (1 John 4:16) because the three Persons are united in one God. The Persons of the Trinity already love each other perfectly, so God shares that love with us. God calls us to be united in love with God and with each other. Remember that God knows us perfectly and still loves us. How many of us would want another person to know everything about us? Yet knowing our weaknesses and our sins does not hurt God's love for us. On the contrary, our weaknesses allow God to help us by answering our prayers or inspiring someone to come to our assistance. God permits us to sin, knowing that we can experience divine love in forgiveness. We may not be able to grasp the full meaning of the Holy Trinity, but knowing that God shares this with faithful people helps us to love God even more.

Lifeline Ministries

Last week, Lifeline served 98 families comprised of 348 people. Parishioners donated 106 bags of food. Last week we also had our annual on site monitoring visit from Feeding Tampa Bay to insure our compliance with food safety and program rules. Their feedback was very positive:

"Thank you again for allowing me to visit your agency and conduct your annual site monitor. Thank you for showing me the wonderful pantry! It was great meeting with you and learning more about the incredible work you do for the community. I wanted to take a minute and note your great attention to detail with the pantry and how you operate. This was extremely helpful! Your team is doing a wonderful job with your pantry."

We are grateful for your continued generosity in helping those who need food assistance.

FAST - FAITH & ACTION for STRENGTH TOGETHER

FAST has worked with congregations of faith and meets with Pinellas officials to work for justice concerns since 2005. Every year FAST gets results by on-going research and focus. Such efforts in the past brought improved community change: VPK pre-school, youth restorative practices in schools, civil citations for minor 1 st time offenders, better access to mental health pathways. The 2025 FAST issues are: Affordable Housing & Water Quality.

Millions of Monicas

Moms young and older join us on Thursday night from 6:30-7:30pm in the Chapel for millions of Monica's prayer ministry with a unique mission. Many of us have children struggling to embrace their Catholic faith in a chaotic and stressful world. Like St. Monica, we pray for our children to return to the practice of their beautiful Catholic faith. We are not a support group or a self help group. We do not talk about our children. We pray for them and this gives us reassurance and hope. Please come by this Thursday night from 6:30 and check it out. Questions? Kathycincotta@comcast.net

Pilgrim Virgin Statue Home Visitation Program
