Listening to the Lord's Voice

One of the most exciting things in my adult life has been seeing family members give themselves to God and His Church. I have two nephews in seminary, a niece finishing up two years of ministering to the poor on the streets of Denver, a nephew who works at a church and other nieces who are active in youth ministry. My heart swells with joy and pride at seeing them know, love and serve our Lord.

Over the past two years, my son has been participating in youth group and service activities as well. We have been blessed to have a NET Discipleship Team with us during that time and it has made a tremendous impact on him. He has begun watching Fr. Mike Schmitz and Bishop Barron videos and even binge watched all five seasons of The Chosen of his own accord. But even more surprisingly, he recently told us he had been feeling a call to the priesthood!

Up until now, when we asked him what he wanted to do when he grew up, he gave us a typical teenage answer. "I want to be a you-tuber, and if that falls through, a lawyer." Then, since our family has had its fair share of medical issues, he began considering becoming a doctor. But one day, after he got grossed out by my husband and I smooching in the kitchen, I jokingly responded, "Well, you need to learn how to be affectionate somehow." And he responded, "Not if I'm going to be a priest!"

God has His timing and His ways. His voice is like a gentle whisper that burns within our souls. Fittingly, today's Psalm reminds us: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." Oh, how easy it is to drown Him out! How much more comfortable it is to fill our days with endless activity and ceaseless noise instead of sitting still in the silence to hear Him speak to us. How I wish our hearts would long to hear His voice! For those who seek to hear it, will.

We may not all hear the call to priesthood or religious life or missionary work, but we will hear Him calling us to sainthood. We may not hear Him asking us to write or speak eloquent words, but we will hear Him calling us to love Him and our neighbor. We may not hear Him asking us to die for Him, but we will hear Him asking us to serve Him with our lives.

What do you hear our Lord asking of you?

By Tami Urcia

Bench Sponsors

We are blessed with the lovely Our Lady of the Rosary Grotto. So many of our ministries gather here throughout the year to pray together! We have a good problem: the benches have been so well used and loved over the years that they need to be replaced.

We are looking for sponsors for much needed new benches for our Grotto. The existing benches are not going to last too much longer. We plan to replace these benches with a much sturdier product that will not give way to the intense sun and rain and humidity we encounter here in Florida (as seen in the Fr. Sean Prayer Garden). Especially being so close to the gulf and the salt air. The cost of these benches are $800. Please contact the parish office if you would like to be a sponsor. 727-595-4610.

Curious About Catholicism?

Are you interested in becoming Catholic or completing the Sacraments?

Our next Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) journey begins on Sunday, September 13, at 12:00PM, immediately following the 10:45AM. Mass, in the Multipurpose Classroom in the Education Building.

OCIA is for adults and high school students who have not received one or more of the Sacraments of Initiation– Baptism, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation. It is also for baptized adult Catholics who have not yet received Confirmation.

Those who are simply curious about the Catholic faith or considering becoming Catholic are also warmly invited to attend. There is no pressure or obligation. All inquirers are welcome to ask questions, learn more about the faith, and discern where God may be leading them.

Anyone who would like to meet privately before September 13 is invited to contact André. He is happy to meet with you, discuss the Catholic faith, answer your questions, and explain the OCIA process.

For more information or to schedule a private meeting, email OCIA@StJeromeOnline.org or call the parish office.

Happy Labor Day

God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the worker.
Make a place in our hearts for compassion to the men and women who labor tirelessly for basic necessities. Ensure a place for the men and women who are struggling to find work.
Grant us your wisdom to greet and care for those who are unable to work due to illness or circumstances that prevent their participation. Be with the children who are not able to run and play, but instead must put in a hard day's work to help their family afford to eat, to live. Be with us all, Christ Jesus, as we go about the busyness of our work. Hold us accountable not only for our actions, but most importantly to each of our neighbors. May we continue to work together to bring about your reign! We ask this in your holy name, through the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.
